GOOD ROADS PROGRAM FOR WHOLE WORLD

WASHINGTON, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND LEAD U.S.

Engineering Authorities Say United States Can Use More Than 500,000 Inches of Wood Now

Washington, May 21—When the armistice was signed, the U.S. department of labor distributed 2,500,000 trees, and now the Republican committee is urging, "Good Roads! Build them now and save millions of dollars when roads are built later." "If we build the roads now, the cost of the armistice will be saved," Rep. Robert F. Linn (D.-Pa.) said.