A Long Distance Talk—

A remarkable thing happened on Tuesday morning, says the Medford Tribune, when a guest at the Hotel Medford from his room talked by long distance telephone for three minutes with his mother in New York city. This breaks the long distance telephone records of Medford, although five years ago an attempt was made to talk from the long distance office here by a patron somewhere in Massachusetts, but the talk was very unsatisfactory. Tuesday's conversation, however, was all that could be desired. The feat was made possible by new telephone improvements inaugurated within the past 18 months.
