TAKES MASTER LIAR TO FACE AN AUDIENCE

Denver, Colo., June 10.—Few persons are good enough liars to face an entire court room and perjure themselves. When every eye in the court room is focused on one person, who is seated so that he can return the gaze, the witnesses will tell the truth.

This fact is declared by Judge Julian H. Moore and Judge Henry Hersey to have been proved in a series of experiments covering several weeks in the Denver district court. As a result, the jury box has been reconstructed so that the jurors sit with their backs to the court room; the witness box is on a level with the platform on which the judge sits and the witness is forced to sit where he can see the entire court room as well as the judge and jury.

The experiments showed, according to the two judges, that placing of the witness in a chair beneath the level of the judge and jury and in such a position that the witness can not see more than a portion of the courtroom audience has a psychological effect which encourages a dishonest person in perjury.

"There is not the slightest doubt in my mind that the moral effect of this arrangement is advantageous to justice," Judge Moore said, in commenting on the new plan. "To place the witness in this prominent position, with every eye in the court room focused on him, increases the atmosphere of solemnity and importance that is connected with the occasion. The witness cannot help realizing the dignity of the law and weigh his statements with care."

BIG FOUR BROTHERHOOD HOLDS ANNUAL POW WOW

Denver, Colo., June 10.—Eight hundred seventy delegates of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers officers of the grand lodge, secretaries and stenographers and their families were in Denver today for the opening session of the triennial convention of the organization. The railroad men will remain for more than a month, transacting the business affairs of the order and discussing measures for the benefit of its members.

Twenty-five hundred is expected to be the average attendance at convention sessions which will be held in the municipal auditorium. The ladies auxiliaries will meet in the women's club building. The auditorium has been leased for one month, but it is probable that a longer period will be required to take care of the accumulated business and problems growing out of the reconstruction period. The 1916 convention was in session 33 days.

Leaders in the brotherhood were non-committal regarding questions of general interest which will come before the convention. If the question of government ownership, increased wages and amalgamation of the four great brotherhoods comes before the convention this will be decided as the sessions continue, it was said.

For a month a preliminary committee have been in session at a local hotel, making arrangements for the convention and for the care of the numerous visitors.

and proceed to the field at the end of Lawrence avenue when the signal is given.

J. H. Williams proposed the parking of cars during the band concerts during the summer, and Herman Horning proposed the securing of suitable grounds for district fair purposes. These matters will be considered.

A. E. Voorhies proposed, as a means of making Riverside Park and consequently Grants Pass more attractive, the building of a boat house at the park and providing a number of boats for renting and that each year a water carnival be held at the opening of the swimming season. He presented a motion to the effect that a committee be appointed to arrange for securing funds and to build and equip a boat house. Funds are to be provided by the sale of tickets redeemable in boat hire, a plan which was successfully carried out for the building of the municipal bath house. The proposition received enthusiastic support and A. E. Voorhies, H. W. Webber and A. K. Cass were named on the committee.

During an interval Joe Wharton gave a clarinet selection and responded to an encore.

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF NAPOLEON OF PACIFIC

Honolulu, T. H., June 10.—Hawaii tonight and tomorrow will pay tribute to the memory of Kamehameha the Great, founder of the Kamehameha dynasty who, in a series of wars, brought all the islands of Hawaii under his rule more than 100 years ago. June 11 is the 100th anniversary of Kamehameha's death. His burial place is not known, the few aged Hawaiians who held the secret having died many years ago.

Kamehameha was known as the Napoleon of the Pacific.

HAWAIIAN CAPITALISTS AFTER THE PHILIPPINES

Honolulu, T. H., June 10.—A group of capitalists of Hawaii are preparing to invest $8,000,000 in the sugar industry of the Philippines. John A. McCandless, John Watt and John Hind, representing the Hawaiian financiers, are now in Manila in connection with the enterprise. It is not planned to engage in the actual planting of sugar, but to erect large sugar mills at central points and to otherwise encourage development of the industry. Late Manila papers report that the Hawaii men are making good progress.

ALASKA MINERS GET $6 A DAY AND BOARD

Nenana, Alaska, May 25.—Travelers arriving here from Nome say that indications point to a larger gold output from that district this season than last. On the benches of the Snake river, flowing close to Nome, a new strike was reported to have considerable merit. On Dry creek, flowing through the town of Nome itself, several dredging outfits expected to have a profitable season.

A strike of miners for $6 a day and board, with a working day of eight hours, last year, was said to have been settled with no labor troubles for this season's mining operations.

FAMOUS SALVATION ARMY DOUGHNUTS

Portland, Ore., June 9.—It was the doughnut which led the Salvation Army into fame with the dough-boys of France, although, of course their deeds of mercy maintained the fond friendship which the famous crullers first made.

And it was "Pa" and "Ma" Burdick, the doughnut king and queen of the Salvation Army, who served overseas for two years, who introduced the doughnuts to the dough-boys. Incidentally they are back now aiding in the campaign to secure sufficient funds for the Salvation Army to conduct its work in the United States for one year. Oregon has been asked to make its contribution June 22 to 30 and a state-wide organization of business men, prominent women and live-wire Elks are preparing to handle the campaign.

But for the ladies—here is "Ma" Burdick's recipe for doughnuts (this is for a batch of 600) cut portions according to the number you desire.

Salvation Doughnuts

Twelve quarts of flour.
Six quarts sugar.
Twenty-four tablespoonsful baking powder.
Three teaspoonfuls salt.
Three quarts milk.
Fry in deep fat.

"The secret's in the mixing," said "Ma."

"Ma" Burdick's Sharpnel cake was another favorite with the boys. Here is the recipe:

Sharpnel Cake

(36 pieces)

Two large cups sugar.
One cup molasses.
Two cups milk.
One cup strong black coffee.
Three heaping teaspoonfuls cinnamon.
One heaping teaspoonful cloves.
One teaspoonful salt.
One teaspoonful baking soda.
Four teaspoonfuls baking powder.
Two large cups raisins (the sharpnel).
Flour to make a stiff batter.

SOLDIER LETTERS

Sinzig, Germany, May 11, 1919.
Dear Mother:—This being Mother's Day, I am going to write a long letter and as we have moved from France and I am in Germany on the Rhine river, in a town by the name of Sinzig, which is sure a pretty place and it seems that all the country around here is pretty. We can look across the river and see one of the famous castles on the Rhine and I think I am not a bit sorry that we have come here for a short time—at least I hope so. We sure had a fine trip up here as we drove all the way from Toul to here in trucks and so we had a chance to see some of the country. We left last Monday a week ago and so you can see that we had a good way to go before arriving here.

We are not sleeping in janicks any more but are sleeping in the houses that belong to the people of this town and in one way it makes a fellow feel as though he were home. But there is nothing like the home in the good old U. S. A. at that; no matter how fine it may be over here. By the way they talk we will not be here as long as we were in France.

I received one of your last letters the same day we moved so I am going to answer it in this letter. I will write you more after we are here a little longer as we cannot see it all in a day or so. I will write as much as I can for this time, hoping it will find you well, as it is leaving me in the very best of health.

Say, have you seen any of the things that I have sent to you? If so, please let me know in the next letter. Will close for this time, with love to all.
JOE.
