QUALITY AND STYLE

Cloth, design and workmanship are claimed for every suit of clothes, yet every man knows that clothes impressions differ as widely as face impressions.

Collegian Clothes

have been famed for over fifty years as designers of character-clothes for exacting men. Because of the very high quality of the fabrics, the precision of their tailoring and for that indescribable something in the completed suits that marks them as distinctive. Waistline or conservative models; slashed or patched pockets; the fabrics you like—the price you like.
