Reports Road "Choppy"

J. H. Denison, who made a record run from this city to Roseburg Saturday in three hours and 55 minutes, reports the roads rough from here to Glendale, but says the highway is like a boulevard from Canyonville to Roseburg. Through the Cow Creek canyon he found the road rather "choppy," had to ford the small creek three times, but says any automobile is able to make the trip, as the road is not considered the least dangerous. Mr. Denison drove a Buick to Roseburg, the party who accompanied him agreeing to buy the car if Mr. Denison would drive it through the Cow Creek canyon.
