MANY LOCAL PEOPLE HEAR SCHUMANN-HEINK

Grants Pass was well represented at the Schumann-Heink concert at Ashland Wednesday night held in the big Chautauqua building. The building has a capacity of 3,000 and there were about 2,500 to 2,800 people at the concert.

Madam Schumann-Heink had the big audience with her from the moment of her appearance and her wonderful voice filled the auditorium and reached the hearts of her admirers. In her program were several war songs in which was shown her intense patriotism and her love for the boys in khaki.

Among the Grants Pass people who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Niles, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Nutting, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Stott, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clarke, Marian Roemer, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Macduff, Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Britten, Dr. and Mrs. George G. Brainerd, Mr. and Mrs. George Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Pies, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Maxwell; Mesdames S. Loughridge, F. H. Ingram, A. G. Knapp, G. P. Jester, Jennie Moss, F. D. Stricker and daughter, Geo. C. Sabin, A. S. Barnes; Misses Alma Wolke, Genevieve Pattillo, Berenice Quinlan, Loren Courtney, Ruby Kenyon, Lulu Benedict, Fannie Abrams, Courtney Ross, Ruth Corbett, Kathryn Ryan, Marian Sabin, Mildred Smith, Grace Green, Aris Gotcher, Mildred and Alice Lovelace, Blanche Crane, and the Misses Hanseth of Dryden; Messrs. CALL FOR DENTIST
STOPPED TOOTHACHE

George Boggs is the young man who was caught helping himself to things in general in the Stag Cigar store a few nights ago, and since he has been boarding with Sheriff Lewis has developed a severe case of toothache. At least young Boggs says it is his teeth that makes him pace wildly back and forth in his cell and emit horrible yowls and groans.

These yowls and groans have been disturbing the courthouse officials and passers-by, therefore it behooves the sheriff's force to take a hand in the matter. Yesterday Sheriff Lewis approached the jail while Boggs was in the midst of one of his "spasms" and asked him what was the matter. The young man said it was his teeth—they were killing him. But he had told the sheriff so many canards that his story was discredited.

Deputy Sheriff Lister later thought the matter over and, going to the jail, told Boggs he was very sorry for his jumping toothache and that he would at once bring a dentist to jerk out the offending molars.

"Oh, don't bother now," pleaded the tortured man, "my teeth don't hurt much now and will soon be all right."

Deputy Lister insisted upon bringing the man with the big forceps, but Boggs begged like a long-lost brother for him to keep the dreaded dentist at a distance.

The fact of the matter is, says Sheriff Lewis, that Boggs has a bad record. He is nervous and hysterical and has his daily "crying spells." The young man's mother and step-father live on a ranch near Halsey, and his mother was here this week to see the boy, but he received her in a surly mood and showed a display of temper.

Boggs, who says he is 16, but who looks to be at least 19, must wait and face the grand jury, and the least sentence he will receive will be the reform school. But since Deputy Lister threatened to bring the dentist, the boy's loud yowlings have ceased. He has a nice place in which to rest and plenty to eat.
