FERRYDALE

Mrs. Minnie Hussey was in Ferrydale Monday attending school meeting at the Mapleton school.

A. J. Crow is visiting at the home of his nephew, A. J. Hussey, this week.

Mrs. Marjory Brandt returned from Portland Friday.

Ferrydale was a very quiet place Sunday, most of the people had gone to Grants Pass to see the airplanes. All that went felt repaid for their long wait for them to come.

Picket Creek school district had their stamp drive last week and went far over the top of their quota. They are now preparing to build a new school house this summer which they need very much.

Arthur Bennett, of Glenwood, Ore., and Al Wallace, of Portland, arrived Thursday and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Overton.

Mrs. M. L. Griffin and Eldon McCallister, were at Grants Pass Monday on business.

Mrs. Overton is visiting her sister, Mrs. Leach, of Grants Pass.

Mr. Denison, of Grants Pass, was in the neighborhood Monday on business.

Mrs. Wilda Erickson who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Overton, returned to her home in Portland Saturday.

Charlie Johnson and son, Lloyd, are fishing on the river here.

Born June 10th, to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Robertson, a daughter.

Little Irene Fick got her arm broken Thursday. She and her sister, Blanch, were riding a horse and were both thrown off.

Mrs. Liddle Wertz and children came out from Grants Pass Thursday after Grandma Griffin, who had been visiting in the neighborhood.

BETTER BREEDING HELPS

In dairying large production and profit go hand in hand. Breeding furnishes the most economical way to obtain large-producing cows. The purebred bull, with generations of high-producing ancestors back of him, must be used for breeding, and only the best heifers from the best cows should be chosen to be the dams of the next generation.

CERTAIN BULK IS NECESSARY

Table Gives Classification of Common Feeds as to Bulkiness—Palatability Important.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.) A certain bulk is necessary in the grain mixture given to the dairy cow to obtain the best results. When heavy feeds are used, some bulky ones should be included to lighten the mixture, since it is probable that a certain degree of bulkiness aids digestion. Some of the common feeds are classified as to bulk in the following table: Classification of Common Feeds as to Bulkiness.

Raise the Dairy Calves, the Nation Needs Them.

Bulky	Gluten feed
Alfalfa meal	Rye
Corn-and-cob meal	Barley
Brass (wheat)	Heavy or Compact
Dried brewers' grains	Compact
Dried distillers' grain	Hoek-wheat middlings
Oats, ground	Cottonseed meal
Malt sprouts	Linseed meal
Dried beet pulp	Coconut meal
Medium	Peanut meal
Corn meal or feed	Gluten meal
Hominy	Wheat middlings

Palatability is of great importance in successful feeding. The best results can not be obtained with any feed which is not well relished by the cow; consequently any unpalatable feed to be used should be mixed with those that are appetizing.

In making the grain mixture care should be exercised that too large a quantity of either constipating or laxative feed is not included. Cottonseed meal, for example, is decidedly constipating and should be fed with laxative grains or succulents, such as silage or roots. For ordinary feeding in most parts of the United States not more than one-third of the grain should be cottonseed meal. In some sections larger quantities have been fed, but this practice is not recommended. On the other hand, linseed-oil meal, because of its distinctly laxative action, should not be fed ordinarily in greater quantities than 1 1/2 pounds a day.

MAKE TEST OF YOUNG BULLS

Some of Best Breeders Loan Out Animals to Dairymen in Community to Try Them Out.

Some of the best breeders follow the practice of lending out a number of the young bulls to dairymen in the community merely for the purpose of trying them out. Of course, many of these bulls prove to be mediocre, but when a valuable one is found he is the property of the lender and will repay any expense involved in his discovery. A sire that has proved his worth always is in demand and can be sold readily if the public knows of his whereabouts. The purchaser can be found by advertising.

Getting Even With the Censor.

"The censor cuts out all the interesting parts of his letters, but he's found a way to get even with him." "What's that?" "He says he's going to quit writing."

Daily Thought. The burden which is well borne becomes light—Ovid.

Optimistic Thought. One is filled with riches who knows how to do without them.

WYOMING PREPARES FOR THE LONG DROUTH

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 20.—Wyoming, long the oasis of this section of the west, will enter the ranks of prohibition states on July 1. Sale and manufacture of liquor within the state will cease on that date regardless of whether national prohibition is effective in the nation.

Data gathered in the three largest cities in the state—Sheridan, Casper and Cheyenne—shows virtually every barroom and saloon has been spoken for by proprietors of candy shops, soft drink parlors, cafes, music stores and restaurants.

Saloon men are cleaning out their stocks as rapidly as possible. It is stated with authority that respectable citizens of the state who lay in a moderate supply of liquor now for their own use after July 1 will not be molested, but the authorities have announced their will be eternal and vigilant warfare wages on the man who seeks to buy now and sell later.
