IT WAS A GREAT GAME, EVEN IF SO ONE-SIDED

What promised to be a very close and interesting baseball game between Ashland and Grants Pass yesterday on the home grounds was a wild stampede in the third inning when Ashland went into the air and stayed there until Grants Pass scored seven tallies before the umpire called "three out."

The grand stand was about half filled with people while many were present in automobiles to witness the contest. The Ashland team was accompanied by a number of "rooters" who, after the third inning, appeared to lose heart.

Ashland's only score was made in the first half of the second, when a runner succeeded in sliding home. The umpire called the runner out, but immediately the Ashland rooters and a few of their players ran onto the diamond and disputed the decision. After several weeks of arguing it was decided to flip a coin to decide the case—and Ashland won—they had a tally. Aside from this one interruption the game was a clean and orderly one, and some "star" plays were executed.

The score was as follows:
Grants Pass.1 1 7 0 5 1 0 15

Ashland used three pitchers in a vain attempt to stave off defeat, while Frye twirled the entire nine innings for Grants Pass. Eddings, catcher for Grants Pass, injured his fingers on one of Frye's swift ones and was relieved by Gale Smith.

But that man Frye—he had no business in the game. He had his opponents at his mercy at all times. Whenever a score was threatened he "tightened up" and the result was invariably a goose egg. He not only had "plenty on the pill," but his speed was marvelous, taxing the catcher's best efforts to stop the sphere.

Ashland had some good players and had they not "gone in the air" in the third and fifth the game would not have been so one-sided. They staged some individual plays that brought forth cheers even from the Grants Pass rooters. Aside from those two fatal innings but few errors were made by either side.

Riggs, the one-armed man, smashed the ball for a two-bagger, while Blevins traveled to third on a smashing drive to right. Riggs twice made the first sack on bunts by his superior speed, beating the ball by a narrow margin. Bears, who held down first for Grants Pass, was found right at home whenever called upon, while Tingley's running catch in the first half of the 6th brought a shout of applause from the grand stand. These were but a few of the

POWERFUL TALE OF LOVE AND ADVENTURE AT JOY

Surpassing in importance any previous moving picture event will be the engagement of "The Unpardonable Sin," Harry Garson's extraordinary epic photoplay, starring Miss Blanche Sweet, under the personal direction of Marshall Neilan, at the Joy Theatre, beginning Tuesday; there will be 3 presentations daily, the matinees at 2:15 o'clock, and the night presentation at 8.

"The Unpardonable Sin" is one of the most pretentious screen plays that has ever been attempted, and has been completed after months of painstaking effort and with the expenditure of more real money than has been enlisted in the aid of any photoplay produced within the past five years. It is a brand-new production, and just now is having its initial runs in the important theatres in the east.

The story has been spoken of as one of the most powerful tales of love and adventure which has ever been written and reviews of the picture made by important critics throughout the country pay high tribute to Director Marshall Neilan when they say that here is one of the rare instances when the photoplay version is even more powerful and gripping than the original narrative.

When they see "The Unpardonable Sin" moving picture devotees will be particularly interested in the work of the star, for the reason that in Miss Blanche Sweet it brings back to the screen a favorite who had thoroughly established herself before retiring for a long and much-needed rest. Miss Sweet won her spurs in some of the biggest and best pictures ever produced by David Wark Griffith, who has since given to the public such big things as "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" and "Hearts of the World."

COLLEGE POULTRY PAYS

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 23.—Profits of $1,500 were netted by a Lebanon, Ore., poultryman who uses O. A. C. stock. His 600 hens, half of which were pullets, averaged 150 eggs a year. Another with 35 leghorns sold 214 1/2 dozen eggs, set 24 1/2 dozen, and used 83 1/2 dozen on the table. His feed cost was $52.50, leaving his net gains $102.07.

Are You Feeling Old Today?

MORE OFTEN than is recognized do middle-aged men and women mistake kidney trouble for on-coming old age.

Tired, weak or deranged kidneys do not filter waste matter out of the blood as they should and backache, tired feeling, biliousness, sore muscles, stiff joints, rheumatic pains, irritation of the bladder, puffiness under eyes or other symptoms or ailments appear.

Foley Kidney Pills

Strengthen kidneys, stimulate the bladder and tone up the liver. They help the kidneys remove the accumulating poisons and soothe and heal the passages. When the kidneys and urinary tract are doing their work perfectly, the whole system is benefited and restored to health and strength.

Louis Buckner, R. F. D. 1, Box 58, Somerset, Va., writes: "I was feeling all run down, tired, with pains in my back. After taking Foley Kidney Pills I felt like a new man and will speak words of praise anywhere I go among my friends. You can use my letter if it will be of any service at all to you."
