TOURISTS ENJOY FREE AUTO CAMP GROUND

Auto tourists are making good use of the Riverside auto camping grounds and they appreciate a pleasant place to stop. Tuesday evening before 8 o'clock there were 16 automobile camping parties in the park, some of them with full camp equipment and cooking their own meals while others were provided with tent and bedding only taking meals at the hotels and restaurants of the city. The auto camp is holding many tourists in the city over night, while occasional parties remain several days.

The annual cleanup day at the auto park was not observed this year and the park shows neglect. There should be a day appointed when public spirited citizens armed with rakes, axes and shovels, would spend a few hours in clearing the park of rubbish and providing more tables, benches and fireplaces.

Baby Steelheads—

Today 30 cans of small steelheads were shipped from the fish hatchery at New Hope, on the Applegate, to Medford. Some of these minnows will be taken to the hatchery at Butte Falls, while others will be distributed in the neighboring streams.

Few Locals at Caves—

F. M. Huyler was one of a party to visit the caves Sunday, he reports that his was the only Grants Pass party to visit the caves so far this season, while 24 Medford cars have made the trip.

Orchestra at the Joy—

Those who attended the Joy Theatre last night were greeted by a new orchestra which furnished pleasing music through the picture play, "The Unpardonable Sin." The organization is composed of the following players, who will also play at the theatre tonight: Miss Alma Wolke, piano; Ted Powell, violin; Earl Voorhies, trombone; Jo Pardee, Cornet; Lynn Sabin, clarinet.

Volunteers Wanted—

Paul J. Bauer, local recruiting officer, stated today that 25,000 volunteers are wanted at once for duty on the Mexican border, while the government is asking for 50,000 additional volunteers for service overseas to relieve the married men on line duty there. Those between the age of 18 and 40 are eligible for line duty, while those from 40 to 55 are eligible for staff duty. Enlistments will be received for from one to three years.

Suit for Settlement—

A trial was heard in Justice Holman's court today, wherein Jack Whitsett is suing Ed Barlocker for damages done to a horse and rig which Mr. Barlocker recently hired to make a trip to the Granite Hill mine. The horse ran away throwing Barlocker out and damaging the buggy. Mr. Barlocker escaped injury, and is willing to settle, but the men could not agree on the amount of damages. Judge Holman will render his decision this evening.

Finish Viewing Road—

Surveyor K. E. Hodgeman, of the Pacific highway department, has finished viewing the road from the edge of Grants Pass to Sexton hill, for the purpose of establishing a permanent route. Some changes will be made and Mr. Hodgeman will make another trip here before finally deciding on the exact route. Should this part of the highway be established and graded this year it will in all probability be paved during 1920. The county court will decide on the matter within a few days.

15 Days to Cool Off—

Leonard Stockdale, a discharged soldier in uniform, and Harry Brosius, aged 18, were taken before Justice Holman yesterday to answer to a charge filed by one of the Southern Pacific detectives. Stockdale and Brosius were stealing a ride on a freight train and when ordered off by the conductor refused to get off peacefully. Stockdale is of the opinion that he was entitled to ride on the train because he was in uniform, and when the two men were put off they turned off an "angle-cock" on the train, thus shutting off the airbrakes. This was done through spite and might have caused a serious wreck had the train struck a steep down-grade. After hearing the evidence, the Judge gave each man 15 days in the county jail.
