GRANTS PASS COUPLE MARRIED AT 12 TODAY

The marriage of James Ralph Wood and Miss Helen Ermina Hair, both of this city was solemnized at noon today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hair on Washington boulevard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Melville T. Wire, while the couple were standing under a bower of ivy with Shasta daisies entwined.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served to the guests, who were, beside the parents and sister of the bride: Mrs. Wood, mother of the groom and Mrs. Barnes, both of Long Beach, Cal., Mrs. Jennie Kemp, Miss Katherine DeVoe, of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Woodson, Mrs. M. C. Findley of Salem, Bayrd, Genevieve, Louise, Pauline and Edith Fittley, Rev. and Mrs. Wire, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Riddle, Doris Birchard, Edith Dahlberg, Prudence Pardee, Ruth Hathaway, Jeanette Cramer, Florence Riddle, Beulah and Belle Williams.

After the luncheon group pictures were taken of the happy couple and the wedding guests, the bride in her wedding gown, which had been also her mother's wedding dress. Another group was to have been taken with the bride in her street costume, but while the guests were waiting for her appearance the bride and groom slipped away in an automobile and all trace of them was lost. Their ultimate destination is Long Beach, where they will be at home after July 1.

The bride has been a resident of Grants Pass with her parents for 16 years past, a graduate of the Grants Pass high school and the University of Oregon of the class of 1919. The groom was but recently discharged from the U. S. navy.

The Hair home was decorated by members of the A. T. F., an organization of high school girls, of which Miss Hair was the first to be married.

Beware Fishermen—
You are not supposed to fish within 200 feet of a dam in any stream. However, it is rumored that certain fishermen are disregarding the law and are making catches right at the Ament dam, resorting to most any old method to catch the fish as they are trying to get past the place. Two certain game wardens are keeping their eye on that dam and state that they intend to enforce the law to the letter.

Traveling by "Palace"—
Mr. and Mrs. Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Morton, of Vancouver, Wash., passed through Grants Pass this morning en route to St. Louis, Mo. The latter couple were traveling in a Case car, while Mr. and Mrs. Fuller had rigged up a G. M. C. truck to resemble a palace on wheels. The truck contained a bed—springs and all—and many other cleverly arranged conveniences to take the drudgery off travel. Mrs. Fuller is a niece of Carl Williams of this city.

COXEY HAS A "DEEP ONE"

Washington, June 26.—Jacob S. Coxe of Massillon, Ohio, who in 1894, led his famous "army" of unemployed to the capital, appeared before the house banking and currency committee to advocate legislation which he said would end unemployment, but after he had distributed pamphlets to members, the committee adjourned suddenly.

The publication discussed various proposals for correcting conditions of unemployment and contained this final passage.

"Or, failing in this peaceful and desirable mode, then revolution. Think it over; is there anything else left for us to do?"

Coxey told the committee "revolution" in the generally accepted sense was not meant, but he refused to explain just what he did mean.
