DIGGING UP ANCIENT CALIFORNIA HISTORY

San Pedro, Cal., July 1.—Interest in the early history of California and Mexico has been increased through discoveries made on the island of Guadalupe, a picturesque and rugged peak rising out of the Pacific, about 350 miles southwest of this port, by a party of Americans who sailed from here and returned recently.

Not only did they find what is considered evidence of the presence there of Americans more than a century ago, but also discovered what appeared to have been the last resting place of some daring explorer of a far earlier date. Much speculation has been aroused as to whether a leader of the famed expedition of Juan Rodríguez Cabrillo, perhaps even that hardy Portuguese himself, may have been given there the loneliest of tombs.

The discoveries were made by the merest chance. Members of the exploring party resting on the crown of a great rock, a few rods from the shore, noticed what appeared to be rude lettering on the side nearest the sea.

The debris cast up about the rock by the waves was removed with picks and shovels and there was exposed to view the record of a landing by the crew of the ship "Triumph" in 1807—so reads the inscription.

There are a score of names there; also an American flag and an American shield. The names are thought to be those of New England whalers, for they are such as were borne by the Puritans. There is one name cut larger than the rest—Sam'l Chapman. Another deeply engraved is David Cristy. The Christian names are such as Thaddeus, Theophilus, Ebenezer, Jonathan, common in the last century.

"Landed Sept. the 9 A. D. 1807" is the record of their coming. "Left the"—and there the grinding of the rocks and sand of many tides has done its work and the rest is left to the imagination.

Women Made Young

Bright eyes, a clear skin and a body full of youth and health may be yours if you will keep your system in order by regularly taking

The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles, the enemies of life and looks. In use since 1895. All druggists, three sizes. Look for the name Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitation.

HOW RHEUMATISM BEGINS

The excruciating agonies of rheumatism are usually the result of failure of the kidneys to expel poisons from the system. If the irritation of these uric acid crystals is allowed to continue, incurable bladder or kidney disease may result. Attend to it at once. Don't resort to temporary relief. The sick kidneys may be restored to health by the use of some sterling remedy which will prevent a return of the disease.

Get some GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil Capsules immediately. They have brought back the joys of life to countless thousands of sufferers from rheumatism, lame back, lumbago, sciatica, gall stones, gravel and other affections of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and allied organs. They will attack the poisons at once, clear out the kidneys and urinary tract and the soothing healing oils and herbs will restore the inflamed tissues and organs to normal health. All others are imitations. Ask for GOLD MEDAL and be sure the name GOLD MEDAL is on the box. Three sizes, at all good druggists.

Fred Stone

in "UNDER THE TOP"

Music by the orchestra. A twenty minute prelude and orchestral accompaniment for the picture.

The feature picture (at the Strand) is "Under the Top," with Fred Stone, and it is so much better than Stone's previous picture, "The Goat," that it seems a pity he could not have had it for his screen debut.

The scenario is good and the titles are amusing. They have succeeded in bringing to the front some of Stone's delightful good humor and ingenuity, also they have woven a perfectly plausible plot around his acrobatic feats, so it is not necessary, as is so often the case, to hold up the entire operation while the star steps forward and climbs houses, leaps over fences and walks tight ropes—all of these things are part of the story.—New York Tribune.

Fred Stone figures at the Strand in a story of circus life entitled "Under the Top." It is said that the basis for the story was found in Stone's own experiences as a youngster, when he yearned for life "under the big top." As an expert laxist thrower, tight rope walker, bareback rider and skater, besides being the comedian who won wide renown as the "Wizard of Oz," Fred Stone has unusual qualifications for this acrobatic role. The fact that John Emerson and Anita Loos are the authors of "Under the Top" is in itself a sufficient assurance of a lively and skillful scenario.—N. Y. Sun.

To see him pursued across a circus lot while a performance is going on was funnier than any of his feats. He was clown, trapeze performer, bareback rider and pole climber, and his escape up the center pole onto the big top and down from such dizzy heights in safety was accomplished at aviation speed.—New York Herald.

HOLLOWEG WONT SATISFY; WILLIE MUST COME OUT

Washington, July 1.—International law experts of the entente embassies in Washington hold that since Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg in his capacity of chancellor of the German empire was responsible solely to the German emperor, the one-time ruler of Germany cannot escape full responsibility for any and all the acts committed by his subordinate.

FIND 16-INCH VEIN OF SOLID GOLD IN IDAHO MINE

Grangeville, Idaho, July 1.—One of the richest gold finds made in recent years in Idaho country was reported in the Unity mine at Warrens. The strike was made at the 900-foot level, where a 16-inch vein was uncovered. It is almost pure gold. The property is owned by H. A. Czizek of Boise.

Warrens is one of Idaho's oldest mining camps and has yielded $25,000,000, but this strike is the best ever made.

CHINESE DELEGATES AT CONFERENCE WORRIED

Paris, July 1.—In spite of their refusal to sign the peace treaty Saturday, the Chinese delegates are not regarded as having withdrawn from the peace conference and will continue to take part in the proceedings. The delegation is awaiting instructions from Peking.

If the Chinese government is disposed to sign, it is said in conference circles, it is still possible for its delegates to do so.
