

Do you need more money in your business?

The addition of a little capital to your working fund often produces greatly increased dividends from your total investment. This bank is prepared to lend money in any sum for the development of all legitimate commercial enterprises and for farm purposes. Approved security of course is required, in compliance with law and sound banking principles. We invite a confidential interview with you.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTHERN OREGON

LAUREL CHAMPION HERD JOINS WITH EPOCHAL

F. R. Steel, owner of Winona ranch, which made a nation wide reputation for the quality of Berkshire hogs which have been shipped from that farm during the past five years, has been in the county the past week and left Saturday for Chicago. Mr. Steel is general manager of the Gossard Breeding Estates, the largest pure bred livestock breeding organization in the world, which has extensive breeding stock farms in Indiana, Colorado and Kansas. Mr. Steel spends about half of his time at the home office in Chicago and visits the three breeding farms regularly, with selling trips at intervals. On this trip Mr. Steel secured five carloads of Ayrshires from the Willompor farm, near Seattle, the entire herd. He is also shipping the Winona Berkshires to Martinsville, Ind., to be combined with the famous Epochal herd. The boar Epochal and the boar Laurel Champion of the Winona herd are recognized as the two greatest living Berkshire boars.

Pear Picking Starts Early—Denney Company, whose packing house is located at Warehouse No. 1, started picking Bartlett pears this morning for shipment east. They are already receiving pears, and will start packing tomorrow. The season for pears is beginning unusually early this year.

Graduate Nurses Visiting Kerby—Misses Hazel Nelson and Florence Ridsel, of Chicago, Ill., graduate nurses of Mary Thompson hospital, and Miss Jane McIntosh, of London, Ontario, graduate nurse of Hamilton City hospital are the house guests at the F. A. Mengel home, of Kerby. Mrs. Mengel also having formerly been a Chicago nurse. The ladies are enjoying the mountains of Oregon, and are expecting to spend two weeks at the caves.

Excursion Rates to Coast—Grants Pass to Crescent City, by easy riding cars, for $7.50. Grants Pass and Crescent City Stage company. Phone 26. 741f

Salvation Army Meeting—The Tuesday evening services of the Salvation Army will be resumed on July 29. Subject: "Wanted—Women of Faith." A cordial invitation to all. J. E. Strautin, ensign.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Henry Williams went to Roseburg Saturday night. "Djer Kiss" Perfume. Sabin has it. Miss Jane Wilson and Miss M. Ham, of Medford spent the week end at the F. L. Vannice home.

W. H. Taylor left last night for Scotts Valley to spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cornell go to Cave Camp this afternoon to camp for a few days.

Willard storage battery service station, 314 North Sixth St. 171f

W. H. Dahlburg spent Sunday at Roseburg, returning home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Cass and daughter, Lucy, are on a ten days' vacation trip to Prospect and Crater Lake.

Sterling Mazda lamps at Cramer Bros. 32

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Nutting and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Calvert and children are on a short camping trip to Crater Lake.

Mrs. Sam Neas went to Portland last night to spend several days in the wholesale millinery establishments.

Willard storage battery service station, 314 North Sixth St. 171f
Mrs. C. S. Lamey returned to Central Point this afternoon after spending a few days with Mrs. Jas. M. Derrick.

Mrs. Harold P. Johnson and baby, who visited Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stinebaugh, and other relatives, left Saturday night for their home at Hillsboro.

The O. S. Blanchard, H. H. Allyn, K. Hammerbacher, Madden and Hunt families camped on the Applegate river near Wilderville over Sunday, reporting a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newell and two sons, former residents of this city, who have been visiting in Portland and Seattle, arrived here this morning to visit relatives and friends.

Don't miss the sale at M. P. Anderson's—nothing is reserved—every thing goes. See ad elsewhere. 708 East D street. 29

Mr. and Mrs. K. M. C. Neill and Mrs. Thomas, of Ardenraig, Miss Bartholomew of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Will Scoville of Walnut Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coutant of Theview left Sunday afternoon for Crescent City, expecting to return the middle of the week.

Mrs. Nellie Williams, of Salt Lake, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. S. Hammond, for the past week, went to Central Point this afternoon for a few days. Mr. Williams is expected here as soon as he can dispose of property and will locate here.

BORN

DUNCAN—To Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Duncan, of Provolt, Sunday, July 27, a daughter.

TRIMBLE—To Mr. and Mrs. Will Trimble, Grants Pass, Sunday, July 27, a son.

Airplane Here Wednesday

The airplane advertised to be in Grants Pass Tuesday and Wednesday is having such a business run at Medford that the trip will be delayed one day. The ship is due in Grants Pass Wednesday morning.

From Denver by Auto

Alfred Doerner, daughter Elsa, and sister-in-law, Miss Della Taylor, arrived in the city at 10 o'clock Sunday evening after a trip by auto from Denver, Colo. They were just 30 days on the road. Miss Elsa did all the hard driving, and all the driving for the last three days. Mr. Doerner is a brother of Mrs. E. G. Harris. He owns a ranch at Wilderville and intends making his home in Oregon. Mr. Doerner and family will occupy the Harris home during their absence on an extended trip east.

Miss Lorene Courtney returned home today from San Francisco, where she spent her two weeks' vacation with her brother at Letterman general hospital.

Among the Wilds

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and G. L. Drummond and wife left Saturday evening for the upper waters of the west fork of Cow Creek, where they will spend a week chasing the finny tribe.

Joy Riders Take Car

While the members of the M. Clemens party were enjoying themselves at the Murphy dance Saturday night, several young men took the Clemens Oldsmobile for a joy ride. The machine was missed within five minutes after it disappeared and H. L. Wilson started in pursuit with his car. The car was sighted and when the culprits discovered that they were being pursued they left the car and scattered in the woods. Chief of Police McFane is looking for the owner of a hat which was left in the car.

MRS. STEPHENSON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Isabella Stephenson died at her home, 249 West 1 street, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from cancer of the stomach, aged 62 years. The illness extended over a period of two years, the last five months being confined to her bed. Mrs. Stephenson was born at Brownsville, Oregon, November 23, 1856, and came to Grants Pass more than 30 years ago. She is survived by five sons, R. E., of Los Angeles; D. T., of Portland; D. G., of Aberdeen; Bruce, of Roseburg; and W. J. "Dyke" now on his way home from service in France, and by two daughters, Mrs. G. E. Garrett, of Seattle, and Mrs. Gladys Stricker, of Berkeley. Both daughters and Bruce were with their mother during her last days.

The funeral will probably be held Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. church, Rev. Melville T. Wire conducting the service, with interment at the Granite Hill cemetery beside the remains of her husband, who died nine years ago.

The announcement of the funeral is not made definitely as efforts are being made to locate W. J. Stephenson, who has been discharged and is now on his way home.

Women's Summer Weight Union Suits, also Knit Pants and Sleeveless Vests

MRS. E. REHKOPF

What your Tailor?
The Goodness Is Lasting
E. V. Price & Co.
tailored to order garments are 100 per cent right all the way through—it isn't all on the surface. Naturally your suit will keep its good looks long after ordinary clothes are thrown away.
GEO S. CALHOUN
603 G Street Fifteen years local agent

HAYWOOD-WAKEFIELD CO. FAMOUS LINE OF Reed Goods
In some new styles and the prices are right. The price you can afford to pay. See some of these goods in our window.
Holman's Furniture Store
605 G street, opposite Band Stand

M. P. ANDERSON'S
Millinery Sale
This Sale Starts
Monday, July 28th
Will continue until this stock is closed out
Many things less than factory price—Remarkable values—You can not afford to miss such an opportunity
TRIMMED HATS
RIBBONS FLOWERS FEATHERS VEILINGS MALINES CHIFFONS WINGS
STOCKINGS SILK THREAD NEEDLES HAIR PINS COMBS BRUSHES QUILLS AND ORNAMENTS
MANY THINGS NOT MENTIONED
Hours From 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. 708 East E Street

Joy Theater

LAST TIME TONIGHT

John Barrymore

"Here Comes The Bride"

"EVERYWHERE" A BURTON HOLMES TRAVELOGUE
The last Prizma Picture

TUESDAY—JACK PICKFORD

"FRECKLES"

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A CARLOAD OF

New Ford Cars

FIRST HERE--FIRST SERVED

WHILE THEY LAST

C. L. HOBART CO.

ON PAY DAY

Why not deposit your check in the

Josephine County Bank

If inconvenient to call at Bank, just sign your name on the back of your pay check and mail it.

The Josephine County Bank will then send you a check book and deposit slip.

El Vampiro

An Insect Powder

TO Be Used Against

MOSQUITOES FLIES
BED BUGS LICE
FLEES MOTHS

ANTS, ETC.

PRICE 10c

CLEMENS

Sells Drugs and Books

The Rexall Store

Lillian Gish in

JOY

You can count on the fingers of one hand ALL the pictures produced in the last five years by the master mind of the screen. Here is the list. Check them over—

Wednesday and Thursday

"Birth of a Nation" ONE
"Intolerance" TWO
"The Great Love" THREE
"Hearts of the World" FOUR
AND FIVE

D. W. Griffith

presents

"The Greatest Thing In Life"

An Artcraft Picture—Personally directed by D. W. W. Griffith, with—

Lillian Gish

and

Robert Harron

And an All-Griffith Cast

Robert Harron in "The Greatest Thing in Life" An ARTCRAFT Picture