EUROPE'S FOOD ASSURED

Sufficient Supplies En Route to Provision Liberated Countries.

Enough food to provision the people of the liberated countries of Europe until their own farm crops have been harvested this fall will be in camp by July 1, it was announced by the American Relief Administration through Theodore F. Whitehead.

The American organization, which has had charge of distributing the $100,000,000 relief fund voted by congress, will keep representatives overseas until the middle of August. Director General Herbert Hoover will not return to the United States until all American relief work is completed.

The United States has furnished $500,000,000 worth of foodstuffs to the starving people of the liberated countries since the armistice was signed, according to Mr. Whitehead.

ADVERTISES ITS OWN WARES

Knowitall Family Shrinks From No Publicity in Pointing Out Markets to Be Patronized.

The Knowitall family is increasing here. Members of this large and important branch of the human family seem to have decided that there is no place in the world quite so fine as the national capital, judging from the large number of these busybody folk to be heard in the streets, offices and other places.

You will know a Knowitall whenever you hear him or her. It will be a mild-mannered little man discussing at great length and in a loud voice—always loud—the proper solution of the question of world peace.

It will be a very young man who understands tactics, logistics and all the other branches of the military art from A to Z, and who does not hesitate to offer free advice—at several thousand miles distance—to General Foch, General Pershing et al.

It will be a young woman who is quite sure—in fact, doubt never enters her head—that she is eminently qualified to speak—and, of course, loudly—upon all points of domestic economy. She gives mother and grandmother pointers on how to cook and sew and sweep, and knows all the best methods for taking care of babies.

It will be—but what is the use? All that is possible is to mention a few, and listen to the others.—Washington Star.

WHAT WAS THERE TO SAY?

Simple Prank of Fate That Caused Embarrassment Surely Hard Thing to Explain Away.

The minister of a certain small town Indiana church recently held a number of meetings for his young men members, in which he warned them against being frivolous in the choice of wives, etc. "Modest young women should always be chosen," he quoted and then delivered a heavy tirade against the prevailing short skirts and silk stockings.

Several of the young girls were rather indignant and avoided the minister for a time. But one day as he was coming home from shopping for his wife he met two who at first were rather cold, but as the conversation progressed became distinctly amused and finally departed giggling. The younger one fired this final retort: "I'm glad you changed your mind on some things, Reverend T—"

The minister wondered on that last speech all the way home. Then he repeated it to his wife. She looked at him closely and then burst out laughing. "No wonder," she exclaimed, and held up for him to see the magazine he was carrying.

Some way, in packing his bundles together he had turned it inside out and there, facing the young women, had been an advertisement of very fancy rose-colored silk stockings on a very beautiful model.—Indianapolis News.

He Wanted to Know.

A well-known St. Louis society woman has some very interesting and intelligent grandchildren, and this is the story she tells upon herself. Her little grandson, looking puzzled, said to her: "Grandmother, how does it come that your name is Brown and father's name is Smith, when you are his mother?" These are, of course, not the names, but they will do for the story.

"I'll explain, dear," said grandmother. "You see, I had several names. First my name was White, then I married your father's father, Mr. Smith, and I became Mrs. Smith, and that is your father's name. Then he died and I married Mr. Brown."

"And where is Mr. Brown?" asked the child.

"He is dead, too," said grandmother. "Then what will be the name of the next man you will marry?"

"Well, I couldn't say right off," said grandmother. "I'll have to think about that."

Why Not Raise More Sheep?

The fur that warms a monarch warmed the bear. But the wool that warms a sheep makes two good splits for a man.

Only one sheep in twelve living today is an American sheep, although Americans require a quarter of all the fleeces every year.

Farmers and ranchers could double their flocks and still they would not supply enough wool for our home use, declares "Grid" in the Philadelphia Press. We need in the United States more than a sheep for every person, and that accounts partly for your dear lamb chops and leg of mutton.

But it isn't expensive wool alone that boosts the price of your new spring suit.

The wool in a $50 suit stands the maker less than a tenth of what you pay for it.
