Chief Yeoman Teal Visiting—

Ira Teal, formerly of this city but for the past four years in the U. S. navy, is visiting old friends here. He is now Chief Yeoman Teal and has enlisted for another four year. He will go to Lewiston, Ida., to visit his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Teal. His brother, Lloyd Teal, was in France but reached the United States a few weeks ago. While yet in the service he was in a motor truck accident and severely injured. He is now in a hospital. Ira Teal says that an announcement of his marriage about two years ago was erroneous and was sent in for publication by parties as a joke on him.

Five Dollars Reward—

Five dollars reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of any one stealing the Daily Couriers from residences or mail boxes.

Equalization Board Meeting—

The board of equalization of Josephine county will meet at the court house on September 8 to examine and correct all errors in the valuation, description and qualities of lands, lots or other properties.

Grants Pass Missed—

Sunday evening the Central Point district, Deer creek and the Rogue river in the vicinity of Hell Gate were visited by heavy showers that laid the dust and in some places swelled the small streams until they poured a muddy flood into the clear waters of the Rogue. The immediate vicinity of Grants Pass was missed by the refreshing showers, but the mercury, which stood at 93 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, was rapidly lowered in the evening.

Palace Under New Management—

The Palace dining room will open under new management Wednesday, August 13. Breakfast from 6:30 to 9; dinner from 12 to 1:30; supper from 5:45 to 7:15. Meals from 15c to 40c week days; Sundays up to 50c. 43

Bigelow Home Burned—

Fire destroyed the Bert Bigelow resident near Williams Saturday night and consumed the contents with the exception of a small amount of bedding and a graphophone. The fire caught from a stove on the back porch. Mr. Bigelow heard an unusual noise but attributed it to passing automobiles. He finally went out doors and discovered the roof in flames and in a few minutes the building collapsed. Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow and baby and Mr. Bigelow's sister, Mrs. Grace Collins were in the house when the fire started.

Macduff to Smith River—

Forest Ranger Jones of the Smith river country, accompanied by Mrs. Jones, arrived here Sunday seeking medical relief for Mrs. Jones who has been ill. They will return on Tuesday, accompanied by N. F. Macduff of the forestry office, who will spend a week on Smith river and along the coast.

Portland Supplies Special Train—

A. E. Voorhies returned this morning on the editorial special train from Portland, where he took in buyers week and attended the sessions of the state and national editorial associations. Mr. Voorhies did not make the trip to the lake as it was the understanding of the state association that inasmuch as only a limited number could be accommodated at the lake the national association members only would make the trip. Portland business men furnished the special train and paid the railroad fare of the entire national party from Portland to Medford and return, at an expense of about $7,000 in order to give the visitors a glimpse of Crater Lake.
