DYNAMITE EATING BEAR MEETS SUDDEN DEATH

Complaint has been made that considerable dynamite has recently come up missing which was to be used on the road between this place and Winchester bay in blasting out stumps, etc. Numerous bear signs have also been seen near by where the dynamite was kept until ready for use, but no one thought about bears eating the explosive, but it seems as if they did and were the fellows who were getting away with it.

Last Sunday morning bright and early, Herb Butler and Wm. Book, who had been given the tip as to where Mr. Bear hid away during the day, started out to capture bruin dead or alive. Arriving at what is known as the Decker Point farm, two pups which they had taken along for protection in case of a hand to hand fight with the bear, started the bear out of the brush. A general fusillade from the high power rifles followed. The bear being at quite a distance, several shots were fired. Suddenly during the excitement an explosion was heard coming from the direction of the bear. Going to the point where the bear was seen the hunters found the remains of the animal badly mutilated, and upon investigation it was found that a glancing ball from one of the rifles had struck the animal in the stomach and caused the dynamite which the bear had recently eaten to explode, killing it instantly. It would be a dangerous act for any bear hunters to go into the woods near the Winchester bay road and kick a bear out of its nest just now.—Reedsport Courier.

Lost Girl Found—

The lost has been found. Dana Messenger, missing since last Saturday evening, was located late Monday afternoon at the Good ranch at Cleveland, where the 24-year-old, simple minded wanderer had taken refuge Sunday night. The sheriff's office was notified by telephone about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon that the much sought girl, thought to be wandering aimlessly about in the mountain districts, without hat or coat, had showed up at last, and Sheriff Quine and Deputy Sheriff Rafferty immediately left for Cleveland to take charge of the young lady, who her foster parents say is incorrigible. She was brought to this city and later turned over to County Juvenile Officer Miss Agnes Pitchford. The slightly demented young lady is shy all her upper teeth, but she is still armed with woman's most dangerous weapon—a tongue.—Roseburg Review.

SAYS WILSON RESPONSIBLE FOR PRESENT DISORDERS

Washington, Aug. 12.—Criticizing President Wilson today in the senate for his negotiations at Paris, senator Poindexter, Republican, Washington, declared that by "general phrases" the president had "aroused aspirations which he is incapable of satisfying." "Quoting from his propaganda," said Senator Poindexter, "the communists' demand, under threat of revolution, that the railroads be given, at public expense, into the possession and management of the operatives and employees. It is as though the president has received the world as a toy and proceeded to take it apart in order to reconstruct it on a new plan. He has declared the end of the old order and substitutes for it the new disorder."
