OREGON WEATHER

Probably showers and cooler, gentle westerly winds.

UNCLE SAM, FASHION ADVISER

One of the government bulletins advocating thrift, which endeavors to show that proper buying rather than no buying at all is the true economy, gives these standards for choosing clothing.

Your clothing should supply you with the following things: Protection from cold, heat, moisture and rough surfaces; freedom in movement, breathing and standing. Beauty. You will get this by choosing materials, colors and designs which are suited to you and your occupation, your self-respect. Clothing which is becoming, inconspicuous, clean, neat, and within our means makes ourselves and our neighbors think well of us.

No word here of buying the thing which the neighbor two doors up the street bought, or the thing which the extreme fashion book says will be worn in Paris. Not a word about going without suitable and needed garments.

Clothing is to serve certain fixed purposes. When we purchase clothing which fulfills these we have done all that is necessary. It is extravagant or unsuitable purchase which is costly.

THE MIDDLEMAN SPEAKS

A representative of a big food brokers' association undertakes to lay the blame for the cost of living about equally on two classes, the producers and the consumers. The former, he argues, ought to be producing more, and the latter ought to be consuming less—or at least, ought to be spending less for what they consume, by buying the lower-priced commodities.

There is a little truth in what he says. But to have such sermons preached by middlemen is a little more than the harassed consumer can bear.

It may seem good tactics for middlemen to carry the war into the enemy's camp. They have long been the objects of widespread condemnation, some of which may have been undeserved. They naturally feel like defending themselves. But if they have any real sympathy for their hard-pressed fellow-countrymen, let them furnish a little light on their own operations. Criticism of the producer and consumer may come more convincingly from other sources.

THE KAISER'S INDEMNITY

The Prussian mind continues unfathomable. Here we find the Prussian government soberly proposing to pay the former kaiser 170,000,000 marks, which ordinarily would amount to over $40,000,000 in American money—and for what? A mere non-Prussian would never guess. To compensate Wilhelm for the "civil losses" he incurred by reason of his abdication and flight.

Those losses, apparently, consist mainly of taxes which would have been paid to Wilhelm if he had kept his job. It is said that the Hohenzollerns are being permitted to retain the ownership of their various castles in Germany.

After this, the allies can collect their war indemnity from Germany with a clear conscience. They certainly have as good a right to it as the kaiser has.

Even in the Mormon church there is a difference of opinion over the league of nations. Senator Smoot is against it, as he says, because the Book of Mormon declares there can be no universal peace before the second coming of the Lord; but the president of the Mormon church and his leading associates, and the Desert News, the leading Mormon organ, are for it. Under these conditions, what is a good Mormon to do?

freight rates paid on commodities shipped in or out of this district. The saving on lumber and fruit alone, would soon amount to sufficient money to pay for the entire cost of the harbor, and this alone ought to make this matter of some importance to Oregon's delegation in congress, especially since such a large proportion of the fleet of the United States is stationed on the Pacific coast.

No where between the Golden Gate and Puget Sound, is a safe refuge for a vessel sailing the sea, and the contemplated construction of the harbor at Crescent City, free from shifting sands and the deposits of fresh water streams, offers abundant reasons why this harbor should be constructed.

It does seem as if Oregon's delegation in congress could offer greater assistance, and incidentally it leads us to inquire, "What has become of the Twoby railroad to the sea?"

TESTIMONY PLACES DISQUE IN BAD LIGHT

Portland, Ore., Sept. 11.—United States District Forester George H. Cecil testified today that he recommended to General Disque, in April, 1918, that the Clallam county spruce be tapped by a railroad via the Clallam bay and Hokeo river route, over which the Goodyear Rubber company would build a railroad for half a million dollars.

Instead, General Disque adopted the four million dollar route, after conferring with Milwaukee railroad officials.

The testimony today showed that the Hammond Lumber company of Clatsop county got $452,000 for 2,234,000 feet of spruce. They built a railroad and acquired it in settlement.

General Disque announced that he would not testify again until hearings were had at Washington, D. C.

SHIP STRIKES HURRICANS

Miami, Fla., Sept. 11.—Twenty-seven of the crew of the steamer Corydon were drowned when the ship floundered in Tuesday's hurricane. The survivors drifted ashore today.

THREE MEN SENTENCED BY JUDGE F. M. CALKINS

Judge F. M. Calkins adjourned court here Wednesday evening, until September 15th. At that time the case of Eugene McCormick, administrator, vs. R. R. Wilson will be tried. The foreclosure of a chattel mortgage is involved, and O. S. Brown will represent McCormick, while J. D. Wurtsbaugh, will look after Mr. Wilson's interests.

The trial of Al Zuver has been postponed until September 22, and Mr. Zuver is now at liberty on $5,000 bond. He is charged with burning Philip Frainey, whose charred body was found in the ashes of his cabin near Waldo a few months ago. Zuver lives near Waldo, is married, and has a large family.

Yesterday Judge Calkins passed sentence on three men. Frank D. Morton, convicted of arson, was sentenced to three years at the state penitentiary.

Howard Hilkey was sentenced to two years for the theft of a harness. George Boggs, tried for burglary, was given one year at the state institution. Boggs is the young man who entered the Sauer cigar store here a few months ago, and was caught in the act by one of the local police.

In the George Sanders and Sam Wayment cases yesterday, the judge after hearing the state's evidence, instructed the jury to return verdicts of not guilty.

WASHINGTON PRODUCES GREATEST WHEAT CROP

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 10.—Private estimates of Washington's 1919 wheat crop have fixed the total at 55,250,000 bushels, or about 10,000,000 more bushels than ever produced in the state. The estimated value is well over $100,000,000.

The yield in Spokane, Walla Walla and Lincoln counties will probably be of bumper size. Whitman county, with the largest wheat acreage, is listed as producing 12,000,000 bushels.

MINER SURVIVES AFTER COVERED BY ROCK SLIDE

J. E. Rohrbaugh, a miner working in one of the tunnels of the K. J. Khoery mine at Taklima, had the rather exciting experience of being buried alive Tuesday when a slide of serpentine rock occurred which caught him, covering his entire body with the exception of a small part of his face, which just allowed him to breathe. The three other workmen who were in the tunnel at the time were thoroughly frightened, believing that Rohrbaugh would be badly crushed. One of the men rushed to a telephone to summon medical aid, while the other two set to work to release the prisoner.

Before the man could be dug out, timbers had to be put up in the tunnel to prevent another slide.

Dr. Loughridge, who was called to the scene, made the trip to Taklima in an hour and 35 minutes. When he arrived Mr. Rohrbaugh had just been taken from the tunnel, and was able to walk, having received many painful bruises, but no fractures or lacerations.

"I Think that Crescent Baking Powder Is Fine"
Crescent produces light, sweet, wholesome, fluffy baking.
I always worried to get things into the oven, she writes, "as soon as possible before the raise of the powder was over. But with Crescent I find this is not necessary. Another good thing in favor of your Baking Powder is that I use only about half as much as other baking powders, and by buying the 5-pound tin for one dollar I save 25c on every dollar's worth I purchase, and I find it keeps as good as ever. I think that Crescent Baking Powder is first!"
