Send Home Venison—

Jo Pardee and Earle Voorhies are spending a week camping in the Takilma section and as deer hunters have had some success. They sent in by stage yesterday hams and shoulders of a four-point buck, which Earle says he picked off on the run, the one bullet breaking the animal's neck.

Inquiring About Southern Oregon—

News papers all over the country are asked to send sample copies of their publication to people interested in particular sections, and the Courier is no exception. Thousands of copies of the Courier have been mailed to those applying for sample copies. For a time the demand for samples fell off but recently it has increased, indicating much interest in this part of the country by home-seekers.

Daily Courier $4.50 the 13th.
