

The Years Have Taught Some Sweet, Some Bitter Lessons, sings Lowell.

May we suggest that a fat bank balance goes far toward taking away the bitterness of life. Each one must take the bitter with the sweet, but we can, by preparing ahead, eliminate to a great extent the bitter. MORAL: Resolutely follow the plan of steadily saving for the "RAINY DAY."

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTHERN OREGON

Have your developing and printing done at home

It pays.

We have the appliances and skill to turn out first class work. If your pictures are not satisfactory, we are glad to give you all the pointers you wish. Picture taking is an art. Picture finishing is an art. We are skilled in both, and always glad to help you get good pictures.

Stanton Rowell
Music and Photo House
507-509 G St.

Excursion Rates to Coast—

Grants Pass to Crescent City, by easy riding cars, for $7.50. Grants Pass and Crescent City Stage company. Phone 26. 74tf

Plan New Bridge—

Preparations are being made for a new bridge across Rogue river on the forestry trail nine miles below Alameda. T. M. Hunt, deputy U. S. forest supervisor, who is in charge of the work is in town today. The bridge will be of the suspension type and will have a span of 180 feet. The trail will be closed for three weeks or more while the work is in progress.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Mrs. E. Gilmore, of Murphy, spent the day in town.

George Walter, of Applegate, was in town yesterday.

L. Hartley, of Grenada, Cal., spent the day here on business.

Fruit jars at Cramer Bros. 77

E. A. Holmes left last night for Portland to spend a few days on business.

Miss Bessie Seaman, of Rogue River, spent yesterday in Grants Pass.

Mrs. John Stanbrough, of Williams, was a Grants Pass visitor Thursday.

Jacob H. Cordson, of San Francisco, is a guest of the Claus Schmidt family.

Willard storage battery service station, 314 North Sixth St. 17tf

Mrs. Clifford Jenkins and two children, of Ashland, arrived last night to visit the C. A. Winetrot family.

Mrs. C. Cooper, of Stayton, arrived this morning to visit her sister, Mrs. G. W. Kearns.

P. Erickson, of Portland, arrived this morning and will go to Brookings.

George Riddle leaves tonight for Portland, where he will enter Reed college.

M. Leichter of San Francisco, arrived last night to join his wife, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Shinn.

A. I. Hussey, of Pickett Creek, brought 187 boxes of Crawford peaches to town today, the last of his Crawford crop.

Helen Due, who was the guest of Mrs. S. E. Harmon, of Wonder, left today for her home at Vancouver, Wash.

E. N. Strong, assistant manager of the Oregon Life Insurance Co., of Portland, spent yesterday here with the district agent, A. B. Cornell.

Mrs. E. Rehkopf returned this morning from Richardson Springs, Cal., where she spent the past two weeks.

George Topping and wife of Bandon, who have been visiting relatives at Williams, left today by automobile for home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Malone, of Crescent City, have been in the city for several days. They are on their way to southern California by automobile and will return to Crescent City next spring. Mr. Malone has been assessor for Del Norte county for the past 16 years.

Harold Barton made a business trip to Medford today.

Willard storage battery service station, 314 North Sixth St. 17tf

Mrs. H. K. Miller, of Leland, was in town today.

Bell Hoyle left today for Oakland, Cal., to spend the winter with relatives.

Miss Martha Reed, returned to her home at Leland today after spending several days here.

Mrs. C. E. Sharp, of Eureka, Cal., left this morning for Portland to join her husband.

"Djer Kiss" Perfume. Sabin has it.

E. Roland, of Rogue River, who was recently discharged from overseas service with the U. S. army, is spending a few days in Grants Pass.

Mrs. Archie Mattice and small daughter arrived today from Oregon City to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Drummond.

Mrs. L. M. Morse and daughter, who have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Wilbur Williams, returned to their home at Rogue River this morning.

Miss W. Wadsworth, of Portland, who during the late war was an army nurse at Camp Lewis, and who has been visiting relatives here, left this morning for her home.

W. W. Lovelace and wife, of Idaho, who have been visiting the C. F. Lovelace family at Wilderville, left this morning for Portland to spend a few days before returning to their home.

Mrs. Shore, of Greeley, Colo., left last night for Seattle and will go from there to Colorado to dispose of property before returning to make her home on the old Gilkey ranch near Selma, which she and her husband recently purchased.

Mrs. T. Y. Dean today received word that her nephew, Peale Herbig, formerly of Grants Pass, who has been overseas with the U. S. army for the past two years, has just landed at an eastern port.

Mr. and Mrs. David Peterson, of Dunsmuir, Cal., who have been visiting the W. C. King family at Provolet, left last night for Portland, to spend several weeks. They were accompanied by little Miss Viola Cole, who will visit relatives there.

Mrs. Julia Curtis, of San Diego, Cal., stopped off Wednesday evening for a two days' visit with her mother, Mrs. Alice Mallory. Mrs. Curtis leaves tonight for Portland to nurse and care for her sister, Mrs. John Ranzau, who has been seriously ill for several months.

B. W. Barnhart and wife and Mrs. G. W. Curzon, of Pomona, Cal., arrived this morning and will make a short visit with Dr. and Mrs. S. Loughridge, who were old neighbors of theirs in Kansas. They are on their way to Washington and their old home in Kansas.

Mrs. Walter J. Jones arrived last night from Ashland where she underwent an operation at the hospital and will leave at once for her home near Crescent City. She will be accompanied by Miss Mildred Smith who will spend several weeks with her.

Verne Lewis, who has just been discharged from the navy, arrived this afternoon to spend some time at home, having been in the service four years. He was on the U. S. S. Mongolla, which ships claims to have fired the first shot of the war and which also made the most trips across during the war, totalling 13. Vern was storekeeper, first class, on ship board. With him is George Garrie, of Brooklyn, who will spend his vacation here.

Blackheads, blotches and pimples are generally caused by the improper action of the bowels. Hollister's Rocks Mountain Tea regulates the bowels, cleans the stomach, clears the complexion from the inside—nature's way—"Get that healthy, happy look." Sabin's Drug Store. Adv.

Dancing Party—

Waldorf Hall Saturday night. 69

W. R. C. Meeting Saturday—

General Logan W. R. C. will meet Saturday afternoon. A full attendance is desired as business of importance must be attended to.

Carrier Wanted—

Boy or girl with wheel, 90 cents a week, route in northeast part of city. Apply at once—Courier office.

K. T. Meeting Tonight—

Regular meeting of Melita Commandery, Knights Templar tonight at 8 o'clock. Members requested to be present.

Attention K. and L. of S.—

Regular meeting tonight. Business of importance. 68

To Install 10-Stamp Mill—

It is reported that the company owning the Mt. Reuben mining property are planning to put in a 10-stamp mill. If true, this means a big thing for Glendale—Glendale News.

Dry Wood—

For sale. Drop me a card. Derrieks, 203 Burgess St. 73

Off to Salem—

Sheriff George Lewis, accompanied by E. L. Coburn, will leave this evening for Salem in charge of three prisoners who were sentenced this week by Judge F. M. Calkins. They are Howard Hilker, convicted of stealing a harness, George Boggs, for burglary, and Frank D. Morton, for arson. Morton will be paroled.

New Coats, New Sweaters and New Hats on Display

MRS. E. REHKOPF

ED. V. PRICE & CO.

execute all of our tailoring in a manner that prompts one's friends to confidently ask

What New Tailor?

We have the most approved woollens and patterns for all occasions of wear.

$10 or less, to $60 and more

Geo. S. Calhoun

YOU'LL FIND IT A PLEASURE TO SELECT FURNISHINGS HERE

There is no more interesting or pleasurable duty than the selection of furnishings for the home provided you trade with the store that has a ready sympathy for your ideas and the ability intelligently to lend helpful suggestions.

We respectfully suggest our services to you in this connection.

Our line of furnishings is complete for the home, from cellar to attic, enabling you to harmonize the complete effect of the home.

You will enjoy an inspection of our line

"WE TURN A HOUSE INTO A HOME"

RUGS, LINOLEUMS, RANGES, WALL PAPER, SEWING MACHINES & HOOSIERS.

HOLMAN'S FURNITURE STORE

OPPOSITE THE BAND STAND

PHONE 50 605 G STREET, GRANTS PASS, OREGON

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes

Peerless Clothing Co.

Cash Clothiers

"If Men Wear It—We Have It"

The Oregon

Two shows 7:30 and 9
Admission 10c and 20c

TONIGHT and TOMORROW

BRYANT WASHBURN

"Something to Do"

He was the last word in uselessness. He never did anything for anybody in his life.

Then he got a sudden ambition to do "something for somebody."

Oh boy, Oh boy! where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise—and Bryant Washburn doesn't play a "wise one." Don't miss it!

A Mack Sennett Comedy

"THE LITTLE WIDOW"

Tommasino's Band

(TWENTY PIECES)

Assisted by

Miss ETHELYN OSTRAND, Soprano

This band has played for forty continuous weeks at the San Diego Exposition and has just finished an engagement at the California State Fair, and will open at the Oregon State Fair on Wednesday

ONE DAY ONLY
MONDAY SEP. 15

First Show at 7 o'Clock

Concert at 8 o'Clock

Admission 25c and 50c

Dance

Immediately after the concert the band will give a dance at the Waldorf Hall

Dance

THE OREGON

Rexall Liver Salts

For Rheumatism and Uric Acid

An agreeable effervescent laxative and diuretic, specially prepared for the relief of stomach, liver and intestinal disorders; and as an aid in the treatment of rheumatic, gouty and uric acid ailments.

35c, 65c and $1.25

CLEMENS

Sells Drugs and Books

The Rexall Store