

The Years Have Taught Some Sweet, Some Bitter Lessons, sings Lowell.

May we suggest that a fat bank balance goes far toward taking away the bitterness of life. Each one must take the bitter with the sweet, but we can, by preparing ahead, eliminate to a great extent the bitter. MORAL: Resolutely follow the plan of steadily saving for the "RAINY DAY."

SUCCESSFUL OUT DOOR MEETING, HUGO, SUNDAY

An out door Sunday school group meeting was held at Hugo yesterday and representatives from Merlin, Winona and Grants Pass were present. Rev. G. C. Griffin was in charge and spoke at the morning service. Dinner was served on the grounds. In the afternoon Mr. Griffin conducted a praise and testimony service, after which Rev. E. R. Martin of Portland delivered an address on Sunday school work, then Rev. C. M. Cline preached an evangelistic sermon. An after service was held at which several persons professed conversion.

These old fashioned outdoor meetings seem to have a great attraction for people.

Writer Visiting Friends Here—

Everett Earle Stanard, a resident of this city during his boyhood, now of Brownsville, is a guest at the C. M. Cline home. Mr. Stanard left this city about 12 years ago. He has acquired more than a local reputation as a writer of prose and poetry, his contributions having been published in a number of the prominent national magazines. His editorial and feature stories have been regularly published in the Oregonian and Portland Journal. He served in the Oregon clerical detachment at Camp Lewis for many months.
