Tourist Gets O. & C. Lands—
Ardie Miller and wife of Benton, Ill., on a western trip by automobile visited Josephine county and the Oregon caves. While at the caves they heard of a piece of O. & C. lands on the Williams road about five miles from this city, and they immediately took steps to secure the land, 160 acres, and will make their home on it. Their 8-year old daughter is yet in the east but Mrs. Miller is expecting to return this fall for her. Mr. Miller was in the service with the headquarters detachment, 4th ammunition train, as motorcycle dispatch rider.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
ALLAN HOLUBAR'S PRODUCTION

"Heart of Humanity"

A ROMANCE OF THE GREAT WAR—A STORY OF LOVE THAT PASSETH ALL UNDERSTANDING

In the City of Washington, D. C.

—are congregated the most brilliant newspaper men from all the newspapers of this country... The other evening they all saw—
"THE HEART OF HUMANITY"

The Picture That Will Live Forever

—and here's the combined unanimous opinion of these brilliant men—on this production. READ!

"Your representative honored the Press Club last night with the first Washington presentation of 'The Heart of Humanity.' I want to tell you how it was received. We have had everything in the way of a show and everything in the way of a celebrity at the Press Club from the Duke of Connaught (who is the King's brother), and 'The Birth of a Nation' and President Wilson and Theodore Roosevelt and Jim Jeffries down to our own local police chief; and of course the club is rather finicky about entertainments. Well today I hear all over town:

"Positively that was the GREATEST thing I ever saw at the Press Club."
Yours very truly,
(Signed)

EARL GOODWIN,
President
