WOULD TAKE CASTS OF FEATURES OF DELEGATES

Paris, Aug. 30.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The report from New York that President Wilson has expressed a desire to have casts of the features of all the principal delegates at the peace conference is causing much speculation in the Parisian artistic world as to the probable reception which Premier Clemenceau will make to the request.

Ten years ago when the late Rodin was working on his famous bust of the "Tiger," which Clemenceau says looks as much like him as he looks like Joan of Arc, Rodin asked and obtained permission to make a cast of Clemenceau's features.

Clemenceau submitted to the application of layers of paraffine oil, soap and plaster to his face, fiddled nervously for ten minutes while Rodin was massaging his features, then suddenly asked: "How much longer are you going to manhandle me in this way?"

"Another half hour," replied Rodin carelessly.
 Clemenceau leaped from the chair, rushed to the nearest wash stand and proceeded to erase all traces of the cast from his face. He then gave Rodin his photograph.

LONDON GIRLS ENJOY SMOKING ON STREETS

London, Sept. 25.—Cigarette smoking among London women is now being varied by the occasional sight of a woman in a restaurant smoking a cigar. It is not a big, fat cigar, for big, fat cigars in London are very expensive.

Another development of smoking by women is street smoking, and frequently one may see a girl at the lunch hour in the city sauntering along enjoying her cigarette while during the evening young women may often be seen in the West End streets smoking.

NORRIS AFTER AL BURLESON'S SCALP

Washington, Sept. 25.—Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, told the senate today he believed an investigation of the alleged activities of Postmaster General Burleson in connection with civil service appointments "would show that the postmaster general had done some things that to me seem to be sufficient grounds for impeachment."

The senator was speaking on his resolution proposing such an inquiry.

McClatchy, of Sacramento, and Miller Freeman, of Seattle, told the house immigration committee today. ROBBING SQUIRRELS TO RESTOCK FORESTS

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 25.—Squirrel caches of pine cones are sought each year by foresters in Montana in gathering cones for planting purposes. The work this year will begin about October 15.

Sometimes a single squirrel's cache will yield as high as 15 or 20 bushels, though usually the yield is about five bushels. The squirrels store the cones in damp places to prevent drying and the seeds falling out.

DROUGHT CAUSES LOWERING OF RATES

Washington, Sept. 25.—Owing to the severe drought in the Northwestern states, the interstate commerce commission has authorized the suspension of the long and short haul provisions regarding rates on livestock shipments from Montana, Wyoming, Utah and North and South Dakota, to grazing or feeding points in other states, when it is the intention to return cattle. The commission will also suspend the rates regarding feed.

Price of Labor.

An Indiana suffragist, who is a widely-known speaker, went to her door the other morning to buy some blackberries of a young country woman, reports the Indianapolis News. The berries were fine, but the suffragist wished them at a lower price than they were offered. "Why, they just grow along the roadside so plentifully that all you have to do is to pick them," she told the woman. "Don't you think you are charging a rather exorbitant price for your labor?"

The country woman put her boxes back into her basket. "I've known of higher-priced labor," she retorted testily. "Words are more plentiful than blackberries and yet our club had to pay you $25 last winter for putting a bunch of them together."

His Resolve.

"It is better to do your losing early in the season."
 "I know that axiom," said the baseball manager. "But if I happen to win a few games I'll endeavor to bear it with resignation."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
