WILL OPEN O. & C. LANDS IN SPRING TO SETTLERS

Three hundred thousand acres of government land, situated in this county and in Lane county, says the Roseburg Review, "will be thrown open to settlers probably early next spring, according to a statement made today by R. R. Turner, receiver of the local U. S. land office, who returned yesterday from San Francisco where he had held a conference regarding the matter with Clay Tallman, commissioner of general land office at Washington, D. C. The lands are part of what was formerly known as the Oregon & California railroad grant lands, and which a few years ago reverted to the government by decision of the United States supreme court.

While no definite date was set for the opening, Mr. Turner said it would occur in the early spring. Mr. Tallman said that the plans were fully prepared and that only other matters connected with the land department were preventing the concluding of final arrangements. Of the 300,000 acres to be opened at this time, the larger proportion is situated in Douglas county and the entire amount is agricultural land, it being the amount out of 607,360 acres, comprising the grant in two counties, which are so designated. The remainder is either classified as timber or mineral lands and as such are eliminated from the lands to be opened for settlement. There is another grant of land known as the Coos Bay Wagon Road grant and this is to be opened, but probably at a later date, according to Mr. Turner.

The local land office is now preparing information for a booklet which will be gotten out by the government prior to the opening, which will set forth the parcels of land, each of which will be given a number, and also give some description of each piece and the acreage. Persons wishing to make applications for government land may then write to the local office for these booklets and apply for the land they select according to number."

Crater Lake Season Over—The Crater Lake season will close next Tuesday, when the last stage trip will be made from Medford in the morning. The hotel will remain open until Wednesday noon, and the stages will bring back all tourists at the hotel on Wednesday. Of course, as long as the weather remains fine auto tourists will continue going to the lake, even though it will be lacking in hotel accommodations.—Medford Tribune.

Wanted Their Dope—Two genuine "dope fiends" showed up in Grants Pass yesterday and pestered the doctors for some of the lulling powder. They were unsuccessful, however, and Chief McLane was compelled to tuck them both away in the bed at the city bastille until this morning, when he escorted them to the railway yards and told them to move on. They think this is a terrible world, because they can't procure "medicine" for their excruciating pains.

At Baptist Church—Inspiring sermons, good singing, a hearty welcome. 81

Crescent City for $5—Owing to the present excellent condition of the roads the Grants Pass & Crescent City Stage Co. will take you to Crescent City or return for $5. 75tf

Praise the Rogue Scenery—Mrs. D. Nail and Mrs. Anna Mason, of Oklahoma, who recently visited here with Mrs. Parrish, also formerly of Oklahoma, speak in glowing terms of the wonderful scenery along the Rogue river, especially near Hell Gate and in the Galice section. They pronounced it more beautiful than the famous Royal Gorge, because of the multi-colored trees, shrubs and flowers that clothe the Rogue valley at this season of the year. They purchased a tract of land while here, and will return later to reside here permanently.

Carriers Wanted—Two carrier routes now open for boys or girls with wheels. Apply at once. Courier office.

Complete Plans for Drive—The committee which has taken the responsibility of the drive for funds to house Oregon's abandoned, homeless, nameless babies in a modern fireproof nursery met this afternoon at the Church of Christ to complete the work of organization for the campaign. Sufficient solicitors are appointed to put the drive through in one day, Monday, September 29. The appeal of little Ellis, whose picture appeared in the Courier last evening to "be-a-brick-and-buy-a-brick," has already reached the heart strings of many a Courier reader and numerous acts of self denial to make possible greater gift to the deserving babies, have been reported to the committee.

J. E. Bartlett—Of the Peoples Electric Store, Medford, Oregon, will be in this territory, still selling Standard Electrical equipment—same goods, better prices—your needs will be given our utmost consideration. 75tf

Paris, Sept. 26.—People in some of the villages of southern Russia are wearing dresses made of leaves or grass sown together with bamboo fibre, owing to the difficulty in obtaining cloth, says Major G. M. Towse, who is in charge of the Red Cross activities along the shores of the Black Sea.

"It is an ideal costume for the summer when southern Russia has a temperature like that of the Garden of Eden," said Major Towse, "but I shiver when I think of what will happen to those little girls when the snow begins to fly."
