At the Churches

Bethany Presbyterian Church
Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning worship, 11 o'clock, followed by the Lord's Supper and reception of members. Theme for meditation, "We Would See Jesus."

Evening worship, 7:30 o'clock (note the change of hour for the evening service). Theme, "Attempting the Impossible." Special music at both services.

Tuesday, October 7, a pot luck church supper will be held in the church parlors at 6:15. Each family brings its own lunch, and the whole congregation eat together as one large family. This is the first of six such suppers to be given on successive Tuesday nights. At 7 the adults and young people will meet in the auditorium for a discussion of the first chapter of Brooks' new book on "Christian Americanization." The class will be in charge of the pastor. The children will meet in another room at the same time and will enjoy a story hour from Mrs. L. O. Clement. From the point of view of instruction and sociability these Tuesday evening offer a splendid opportunity. To these meetings everybody is invited.

First Baptist Church

Bible school at 10, R. K. Hackett, superintendent. Classes for all ages. Morning service at 11. Sermon on, "Christ Is All," followed by the ordinance of the Lord's Supper. The choir will sing, "The Fountain." Prof. Applehoff will give a cello solo accompanied by Miss Young of Ashland.

B. Y. P. U. at 7, led by Dr. Britten, subject, "Brotherhood." Evening service at 8, sermon on "The Character of God," being second in the series on the thought of God. The choir will render a special selection and there will be the usual congregational song service.

Mid-week service on Thursday evening. Lesson, an exposition of the fifth chapter of the book of Romans.

You are always welcome at all of our services. Come and worship with "the friendly church."

C. M. Chne, preacher.

Church of Christ

If you care whether the young manhood of our city amounts to anything from the chin up there will be something interesting for you in the evening service at 7:30 when the subject of "And Ideal Young Man" will be discussed. The morning subject will be, "Suggestions to Scripture Students." Bible school begins promptly at 10. "Make our home church your church home."

Chas. R. Drake, minister.

St. Anne's Catholic Church

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL PLAYS SWIFT GAME

Playing a brand of football that would look good in mid-season, the Sophomore and Senior-Freshman teams of the local high school squad fought out a 13-6 victory for the first and last year men Thursday afternoon.

By eliminating the Sophomore team, the Seniors and Freshmen are now ready to meet the husky Junior team for the inter-class championship on high school grounds Tuesday afternoon.

The sophomore aggregation gave the spectators at Thursday's game a genuine thrill when they dropped the heavy Senior backs behind their own line time after time, and got away with long runs on their own account.

Between 30 and 40 men have been reporting for football practice every day and the lively interest taken in the interclass series has brought out some excellent material from the unexperienced men.

Aside from the little scrimmage allowed, the most of the training so far has been in fundamentals of straight football under direction of Coach Niel Allen, assisted by Wilbur Bears, Bob Bestul and Sherman Smith of the championship team of two years ago.

Following is Tuesday's lineup:

MONTE BLUE IDEAL AS LEADING PLAYER

Too much can hardly be said in favor of Monte Blue as a leading man. His recent work opposite Ethel Clayton in "Pettigrew's Girl" was one of the best opportunities he has had, and proved him not only talented, but possessed of great personal magnetism. He is cast opposite Lila Lee in "Rustling a Bride," her new Paramount picture which will be shown at the Oregon theatre tonight.

Mr. Blue is an expert actor, but he has led a varied career in other fields of endeavor as well. He has served in the United States navy and is generally speaking, a man of experience and high ideals.

In his present picture portrayal, the character of a puncher is made lifelike because he knows the character, knows the west and knows how to dress and look as well as act the part.

The real cowpuncher is vastly different from the stage cowboy. He is human, full of fun, daring and original. And that's the kind of a puncher Monte Blue depicts in "Rustling a Bride" with Lila Lee as the attractive little star.

RED CROSS SUPPLIES ARE SENT TO STRICKEN POLAND

Warsaw, Oct. 4.—Relief supplies for Poland, valued in New York City at $8,500,000, have been received at $5,500,000 from the United States by the American Red Cross here. In the shipment are 17,000 cases and bales, containing clothing, shoes, blankets, food, drugs, medicines, hospital supplies and surgical instruments. In Poland these supplies would cost many times the price stated.

300,000 Maxwells Precede This Post-War Car

FOR five years the talent of great engineers was devoted to the Maxwell chassis, and as that is now a work of rare mechanical excellence through magnificent Post-War improvements, the Maxwell has been improved wonderfully in appearance.

Perhaps you have seen this Post-War Maxwell and, like so many others, have stopped short in your hurry and given it a good looking over. Its simply beauty, its delightful grace, its clean cut, sincere appearance, its daring simplicity you noted, and your respect for Maxwell became more definite.

More miles per gallon
More miles an hour

But you did not know, unless you sat behind the wheel, how easy it drives, what a comfortable casting effect there is in the front axle, how snugly it clings to the road with its heavy rear axle, how decisive and sure is the emergency brake, now located on the transmission shaft!

Unless you have sat behind the wheel of the Post-War Maxwell you know but little, for there is a new lure about this car that, once experienced, impresses you beyond words.

There are 300,000 Maxwells before this—all able cars. This is greater in many ways except in price—only $985 f. o. b. Detroit.
