JAPAN ORDERS SOLDIERS TO HELP YANKS

IN RESPONSE TO FORCEFUL NOTE FROM UNITED STATE, JAPS TO COOPERATE

TROUBLE IN EAST SIBERIA

American Lives and Property Have Not Been Protected; Threaten to Withdraw Troops

Tokio, Oct. 9.—Orders have been issued by General OI, commanding the Japanese forces in Eastern Siberia, directing his men to cooperate effectively with the American forces in operation of the Trans-Siberian railroad.

This is the result of strong representations made by the United States to Japan, claiming that in sections guarded by the Japanese troops lives and property of Americans have not been adequately protected.

The note hinted, it is said, that the American forces would be withdrawn from Siberia unless the Japanese cooperation was given and that the reason would be made public at Washington.

GERMANS GETTING CHESTY

Berlin, Oct. 9.—Addressing the national assembly, Chancellor Bauer, discussing the future status of the German army, said he regretted the misunderstanding prevalent in foreign countries. He explained that full reduction of the army would be impossible until the peace treaty came into force, but announced that two months after ratification the army could be reduced to 200,000.

WILSON RESTS EASY

Washington, Oct. 9.—President Wilson had another good rest last night, and showed further improvement today.

ZIMMERMAN WOULD OUST SURPLUS LABOR

Coblenz, Oct. 9.—Mexico is pictured by various German newspapers as a country perfectly adapted to Germany's future needs so far as emigration is concerned. Emil Zimmermann, in the Deutsche Wirtschaftszukunft, deprecates the attitude of many members of the government who believe that Germany should attempt to keep all her people at home. Much more reasonable and sensible, Zimmermann asserts, is the view of those members of the government that the only cure for the labor unrest and the great amount of unemployment throughout Germany is to get rid of as large a number of laborers as possible through emigration.

COTTON MEN TO HOLD WORLD CONFERENCE

New Orleans, Oct. 9.—Every branch of the cotton trade in addition to banking and transportation interests from all parts of the globe will be represented at the World Cotton conference here October 13 to 16.

From England alone there will be 75 representatives, according to advices received from Liverpool. There also will be representatives from 20 other nations directly interested in the cotton industry. Practically every state in the union will have representation at the meeting.

NORUSH TO RATIFY SAYS SEN. JOHNSON

Sees No Reason for Crying "Pro-German" at Those Who Do Not Believe in League Covenant

Following is an extract from Senator Johnson's speech at Portland, Wednesday:

"Why is there a demand to rush ratification? Why the haste to have the treaty ratified? We waited for seven months while things were going on in secrecy and stealth in Paris, and now there is complaint about the treaty and league being discussed openly before the public for three months. The reason for rush is that the advocates do not want the people to know what the league means to America.

"It is popular to be pro-British, pro-French, pro-Italian and pro-Japanese. I want to make it possible to be pro-American. And I object to having anyone who rises a voice against the league being called pro-German. If you will scratch the back of the individuals who call out 'pro-German' you will find a man who is British or who has received favors from that source. I venture to say this is true in every newspaper office where the paper uses such words. There are thousands, hundreds of thousands of good people in this country who honestly believe in the league but they do not designate as pro-German those other citizens who fail to agree with them on this, the most important matter in the history of the United States.

"Apparently, you can obtain the correct view of the league if you wear British glasses."

SPECIAL MEETING FOR BUSINESS MEN

Every member of the local Chamber of Commerce is requested to be present at the luncheon Saturday noon, given by the ladies for the purpose of raising funds with which to improve the city park and auto camp grounds. And it is especially requested that every merchant in Grants Pass, whether a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not, be present.

After the luncheon it is the intention to hold a short meeting for the purpose of devising plans for the entertainment of the jobbers and manufacturers of Portland, who are scheduled to arrive here on Friday of next week. They will arrive at 9 a. m. and leave at 2 o'clock the next morning. One of the features of their visit will be a dinner, composed of Oregon products only.

A number of local merchants are preparing to carry away the first prize for the best window display of Oregon goods. But three prizes will be given, $25, $15 and $10.

Every merchant should make an effort to win a prize. Let us show Portland that we are willing to meet her half way in boosting for, and using Oregon products; and let us show Portland that Grants Pass is not as dead as some people have reported it to be. Come out to the luncheon to be given next Saturday noon by the ladies, and take a hand in giving suggestions and helping formulate a day's entertainment for the business men of the metropolis. Ashland, Medford and Roseburg are going to show the manufacturers and jobbers a royal time. Let us see to it that they do not return to Portland carrying with them the impression that Grants Pass has sure enough gone to seed.

Be present next Saturday noon. Don't leave it for the other fellow to do.

HAMPSHIRE GETS CONTRACT

POINDEXTER AND HITCHCOCK IN LIVELY MIX

DEMOCRATIC LEADER SCORED FOR HIS PRE-WAR VIEWS AND NEUTRAL ATTITUDE

HITCHCOCK DENIES CHARGES

Accused of Remaining Passive Until After Conflict is Over, Then Occupying Spotlight

Washington, Oct. 9.—Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, the administration leader in the senate, stirred up a hornets' nest by linking the opposition to the peace treaty with bolshevism and anarchism.

Senator Poindexter, of Washington, republican, promptly retaliated by reviewing Senator Hitchcock's record before and during the war, and charged that the administration leader did everything in his power to retard the allies up to the point where the United States entered the war. He declared that the Nebraska senator became prominent in his anti-Germanism only after the war was won.

"The senator talked a great deal about the bolsheviks and it is not very long since he was talking about the pro-Germans being opponents of the league," said Senator Poindexter.

"It seems to be quite a bold attitude for one to take, who, while the fighting was going on between the allies and Germany, was doing what he could to retard it, at least up to the point where the United States declared war, who on various occasions introduced bills and resolutions for the purpose of thwarting the efforts of our allies in their war with Germany and to cut off the supplies of munitions that were necessary for them to carry on the war; who declared on various occasions in congress that he sympathized with the Germans; on other occasions that he was neutral in this war; who was not conspicuous at any time, even when we entered the war, in waging it to a victorious conclusion.

"He only became prominent in his anti-Germanism and his denunciation of pro-Germanism after the fight was over. There is always a certain type of men who safely place themselves on the outskirts of a fight while the fight is going on and after it is over they immediately take the center of the stage and become exceedingly belligerent."

"The senator has charged me with being pro-German," shouted Senator Hitchcock. "The senator has no ground for saying that during the war I did not support that war to the uttermost of my strength, doing everything I could to add to the efficiency of our departments fighting the war."

TROTSKY GETS BEST OF NICKOLA LENINE

London, Oct. 9.—Advices to Helmsingfors, Finland, report that Nikolai Lenine, Russian bolshevik premier, has been placed under arrest in Moscow, according to the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Copenhagen.

Lenine is said to have ordered the arrest of Leon Trotsky, soviet minister of war, but failed to secure this and instead was himself taken into custody.

A Reval message forwarded by the same correspondent reports a reign of terror against the bolsheviks in Moscow has been begun by a revolutionary party. In this movement the bolshevik leader, Jacob Peters, is reported to have been killed.

They will go to the mine this week and prepare to get out ore. Mark Arrowsmith, of this city, will assist at the mine.

Privates Stark and Arrowsmith belonged to the 340th field artillery, 89th division, were abroad about a year, and saw service at the Argonne, the Meuse and at St. Mihiel. At the latter place their regiment lost about 150 men, but the boys were lucky and came out of all the engagements without injury. They have many souvenirs from the battlefields, such as belts, buttons, badges, helmets, knives, pistols and a number of photographs.

NORTH-SOUTH CHINA CANNOT GET TOGETHER

Shanghai, Aug. 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—A definite move to bring about peace between the Northern and Southern factions in China was made this month when the Peking government appointed Wang Yi-tang, a former minister of finance, to head a Northern peace delegation to take up again with the Southern representatives the negotiations that were broken off last spring. At that time the North rejected eight demands made by the South and so brought to an end the Shanghai peace conference.

A Peking dispatch of September 29 stated that the Southern delegates had refused to meet Wang Yi-tang and that attempts to resume the conference between Northern and Southern delegations were likely to prove abortive. A resumption of hostilities were, therefore, feared.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Gavin McNabb proposed a permanent arbitration board. His resolution, approved by the public group, provided that all living ex-presidents be members. President Gompers' plan, embodying 11 of the fundamental principles which he emphasized, had the unanimous approval of the labor group, including those of the four railroad brotherhoods.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 9.—The electricians' union today called a strike effective Friday noon, of all men affiliated, as the result of a strike vote last night.
