Big Motor Burns Out—

A big 100 h. p. motor at the Huber rock crusher on the top of the Siskiyou burned out Saturday afternoon, threatening to tie up paving operations there for a week or more until it could be replaced by a motor from Portland, but Superintendent Dunn got busy and located an idle motor of equal power at a mine near Gold Hill.

A very delightful music program was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Britten last Saturday by Professor Applehoff, assisted by Miss Mary Young of Ashland. The music was of high class, some of the selections being especially difficult.

GENERAL LOGAN CORPS WELCOMES PRESIDENT

A most loyal and fraternal welcome was given Mrs. Jennie Bentley, department president of Oregon Women's Relief Corps on her official visit to General Logan corps Wednesday afternoon. A large membership of both post and corps was present to honor her as the W. R. C. executive.

The complete ritual and fraternal work was exemplified and received a tribute of praise from Mrs. Bentley for the efficiency of the corps officers and members.

A fine patriotic program was given at the close of the business meeting. Comrade Metcalf gave a reading and took part in several Civil War songs, assisted by Comrades Lathrop and Peterson, each number receiving an encore, and amid the applause and smiles the tears would come, as one listened to the songs sung by the white haired veterans, the music that gave them the inspiration more than 50 years ago to sacrifice their all on the altar of freedom that has given a united America that a world might live.

A short and pleasing address was given by Mrs. Bentley and in response several of the comrades spoke. Comrade Holman assured Mrs. Bentley that "General Logan corps is the best corps in Oregon." Comrade Heston and Mrs. Alverson, Mrs. Calvert at the piano, sang an old-time duet with all joining in the chorus. This was a most pleasing feature.

President Anna Stinebaugh presented Mrs. Bentley with a package of pretty handkerchiefs as a souvenir from General Logan corps.

Cake and ice cream gave an added pleasure to the closing hours of visiting and greetings by the post and corps in honor of the welcome guest, Mrs. Jennie Bentley.

Rummage Sale Successful—
