BUSINESS MEN SHOULD SECURE TICKETS EARLY

Business men who desire to attend the dinner to be given in honor of the Portland jobbers and manufacturers next Friday, may purchase their tickets from either Geo. E. Lundburg at the First National Bank, or from Sam H. Baker at the Josephine County bank. The price of these tickets will be $1.25 each, and every business man attending the dinner will be expected to purchase two tickets, one for himself and the other for some member of the Portland delegation. This plan has been adopted to cover the expenses of the day's entertainment. Further particulars will be announced within a day or two.

The seating capacity will be limited, therefore it is urged that those who wish to attend the dinner, secure their tickets as early as possible.

Roseburg, Oct. 14.—It is reported here that engineers of the state highway commission, in conjunction with the federal authorities, will very soon make an inspection of the Tiller-Crater Lake road, with a view to beginning work on the road. The funds for this project have already been provided jointly by the county, state of Oregon and the federal government.

GLEN WILHELM KILLED AT REUBEN SAW MILL

Glenn W. Wilhelm was instantly killed Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Reuben sawmill logging camp, five miles below Glendale. Mr. Wilhelm had only been working at the camp a few days. He was standing near the logging cable when the cable slipped from the log, flew back and struck him, breaking his neck and causing instant death.

Glenn was 22 years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Wilhelm, who are now living on a leased ranch a few miles down the Rogue from Grants Pass. He was born in Lane county, where the family resided for several years.

Funeral services will be held at the Hall chapel Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, by Rev. Chas. R. Drake, and interment made at the Granite Hill cemetery.

FINE EXHIBITS AT BAPTIST FESTIVAL

A fine exhibit of Josephine county products was on display at the Harvest Festival held by the Baptist church last Sunday. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion, autumn leaves and giant ferns supplementing the fruits and flowers.

Notable exhibits were made from the farms of G. A. Hamilton, Lathrop Bros., H. B. Wyman, K. Hamerbacher and H. T. Hull. E. L. Churchhill and J. M. Powers exhibited the wonderful grapes of this section.

Many smaller contributions to the exhibit were made, and the whole was tastefully arranged.

This is the third of these festivals to be held by the Baptist church, the purpose being to promote a wider acquaintance with the products and possibilities of our own county and to encourage the sociable features of such an occasion.
