OREGON WEATHER
Tonight and Saturday, fair; cooler east portion, moderate westerly winds.

PORTLAND—THE KEY IS YOURS
This is Portland day in Grants Pass.

The city extends you greetings and hearty welcome, business men of Portland—the key to the city is ours.

Grants Pass wants you to feel "at home" and trusts your visit will be a profitable and pleasant that any misunderstandings that might have existed in the past—perhaps due to the great distance between the metropolis and the scenic Rogue River valley—will forever be obliterated.

You represent Oregon's manufacturing and jobbing industries, and are in a position to build a great city at the mouth of the famous Willamette—as great as any city on the West coast—by assuming a broad, liberal attitude toward the balance of this great state; by lending your influence in securing great highways and railways throughout Oregon.

Portland, you have grown; you are no longer an infant to be content with opportunities in your own dooryard; to be satisfied with the business from the valleys of one or two great rivers. Your dooryard is expanding with the construction of many paved highways that, like great arteries, will bring fresh business to your door.

Railroads will come next, and when the United States regains its equilibrium from the stress of war and strikes, you will profit by remembering that there is no North, no East, no West and no South Oregon, but that we are one people and one state—as rich in natural resources and opportunities as any other state in the union—and will use your best efforts to secure steam railways to tap these rich resources.

A state cannot be built up by building a city only, but you can build a mighty city by building up the state to support it. During the past year you have shown a willing, even an anxious spirit, to cooperate, and Southern Oregon extends her hand to you. There is strength in cooperation only. Let today mark a new era in boosting for Oregon as a unit, lest the state to the north of us and the state to our south so far outstrip us that Oregon will forever well deserve the detested name "mossback."

Oregon products are as good as the best, and every Oregonian should show his loyalty to the state by demanding Oregon-made goods.

No Jugo-Slav Race.
There is in strictness no such thing as a Jugo-Slav. There are Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, all of whom speak the same language, with variations, and are now of the same nationality. There is a religious question among Jugo-Slavs, which has, on occasion, been stressed by the intriguing imperialist politicians on the borders who have been anxious to prevent national unity, the Serbs being of the Greek, or Orthodox church, and the Croats and Slovenes of the Roman church. There are no more than 12,000,000 of them altogether, but the territory of the new nation is larger than that of Great Britain.

FRENCH WILL SOON HOLD AN ELECTION

Lyons, France, Oct. 16.—The election of a successor to President Poincaré is now only four months distant yet parliamentary elections to choose members of the senate and chamber of deputies must first be held as these in joint session at Versailles in January must elect the tenth president of the republic.

Results of the coming election are regarded as more obscure than any since the fall of the empire. This is all the more true because of the death of one-half million voters in the war, the coming of age of an equal number of new voters and the anticipated modifications of party lines by new issues resulting from the war and reconstruction.

Six hundred deputies and 300 senators are to be chosen. No aspirant for any of these seats has yet officially declared his candidacy. There will be no primaries or local convention as in America but the candidates will be selected by party committees with various combinations of different parties whose principles are not too widely separated.

The socialists are resolved not to combine with any other party but the radicals have decided to form union tickets in some districts with other purely republican organizations.

The wide difference between presidential elections in France and the United States is illustrated in the fact that here the president is chosen by parliament while in America the chief executive is elected by the vote of the people for electors.

FATTY ARBUCKLE TURNS WILD WEST REFORMER

"Out West" which will be shown at the Oregon theatre tonight and Saturday, is a scream, with Fatty Arbuckle in the role of a reformer, who straightens out "Mad Dog Gulch," with a Bible in one hand and a six-shooter in the other.

In "Out West" Fatty Arbuckle offers a burlesque on the Western melodrama that possesses many laughable features. William S. Hart is the main target of Arbuckle's comedy. For instance, he rolls a cigarette in one hand with miraculous ease and rapidity, volunteers to reform for the sake of a Salvation Army lassie and proceeds to rescue her at the last moment from the villain, Heartless Bill, by tickling him to unconsciousness. These points and additional clever burlesque on the "typical" barroom scene make for the general good of the comedy.

On the same bill is Shirley Mason in "The Final Close-up."

ONE MAN KILLED, ANOTHER FATAALLY HURT AT ASTORIA

Astoria, Ore., Oct. 17.—Charles Fulton was instantly killed and his companion, John Warner, was so severely injured that death is expected to result in a logging camp near Knapp, according to word brought here today. The two men were assisting in pulling a stump and stood inside the bight in the pulling line. Suddenly the cable slipped, striking Fulton across the abdomen and cutting him nearly in two. He dropped to the ground dead. Warner was hit a glancing blow, his chest being crushed, his back injured and his forehead cut and bruised.

WILD MAN FROM BORNEO DISCOVERED AT BOSTON

Boston, October 17.—Discovery of a "human junk heap" was announced by officers of the house of correction at Deer Island. Charles W. Buzzell of Montreal, serving a sentence of one year for forgery, complained of indigestion. A surgical operation resulted in the recovery of two pounds of miscellaneous articles from his stomach. The collection, Dr. L. C. Rockwell said, included parts of a dog chain two feet long; a safety razor blade, nearly whole; a suspender buckle and 179 fragments or pieces of glass, hay wire, staples, nails, and screws. Relieved of these substances, Buzzell has almost entirely recovered, it is said.

GERMAN NOBILITY STRIPPED OF WEALTH

Cassel, Germany, Sept. 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Two Germans, formerly of the nobility, who have been deprived by the new regime of the greater part of their estates, have been obliged to sue the new governments for restoration or reimbursement. They are the Prince of Waldeck and Pyrmont and the Duke of Coburg-Gotha.

The former principality of Waldeck and Pyrmont is now governed by the Diet in Arolsen where the Prince owned before the revolution two castles and a vast domain of forest. After vainly offering to buy these from him, the Diet confiscated all the Prince's property promising to pay him what the courts should determine to be a fair price.

By one stroke of the pen the commissioners who now rule the new free state of Gotha, confiscated the property of the Duke of Coburg-Gotha estimated to be worth 65,000,000 marks and this without offer of remuneration. The commissioners who were Spartacists took forcible possession of the ducal buildings, estates and bank accounts and, in 24 hours, the Duke was stripped of everything he owned.

full. Portland and Grants Pass have always worked together, and I hope that the future will see us more closely allied, if it is possible, than we are now.

Today noon a trip was made to Savage Rapids where a "hand-out" was rationed out, after which various parts of the valley were visited by automobile, followed by more mixing with the business men.

Tonight at 8:30 there will be a dinner served, exclusively of Oregon products, at the courthouse.

That the editor of the "Grants Pass Nugget" is not traveling a path of roses is proven by the following "kick" from an old subscriber:

"To the Editor: I consider it a damn crime when a supposedly reputable paper suppresses vital news under order from the boss $$$$$$. We are now far from Klamath Falls but the sensational escapade of Nathan Strauss, chairman of the excursion, has not been exposed $$$$$$. I want it known that at the Rex Cafeteria that $$$$$$ Strauss got a sixty cent meal check, paid for it with the excursion train coupon and threatened to wreck the place because they didn't give him the forty cents change. If you reporters don't print this you are all pig eating $$$$$$ belly creeping $$$$$$ invertebrates.

Stop my paper.

A WOMAN'S HEARTY RECOMMENDATION

Worry and overwork cause kidney trouble, and women suffer equally with men. Miss Sara Weston, Belvidere, Ill., writes: "I could not stoop down and when I was down I had to crawl up by a chair. I was so lame I suffered agony. Now I feel like a new person, strong and better in every way. My general health is quite improved. I heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills to all suffering the way I did." They relieve dizziness, puffiness under the eyes, sore muscles and joints and rheumatic pains when caused by disordered kidneys. Sold Everywhere.
