CELEBRATES GRANDPA BAKER'S 92D BIRTHDAY

Last week Grandpa Baker was 92 years old. And the class of the M. E. Sabbath school which he attends regularly, taught by N. E. Townsend, presented him with a beautiful Bible.

On Tuesday evening of this week Mrs. Townsend invited all of the class who were past 50 years of age to a dinner at her home on A street in honor of Grandpa Baker's birthday.

Those present were Honer Guest Baker, J. W. Heston, Rev. Scarbo, Geo. C. Metcalf, M. A. Lathrop and the teacher. Four other of the "old boys" could not be present.

After a sumptuous meal the "boys" enjoyed themselves by telling stories, singing old time songs, interspersed with some phonograph selections and piano music by Norman Kendall.

They all voted it the best time ever.
