GERMANS GETTING AWAY FROM BLACK WAR BREAD

Berlin, Oct. 20.—On the strength of the present prospects of an early improvement in wheat deliveries, Berlin, in a few weeks will be able to take definite leave of the black, pastry, tasteless war bread which has been a prolific producer of morning sickness and indigestion.
 The new loaf which bakers will provide will be hailed with enthusiasm, as it deserves to be for the feat of washing down two slices of potato or carrot meal bread with a cup of acorn coffee, though only one of many gastronomic acrobatics prac-iced by blockaded Germans in the last four years, was never rendered any easier by frequent repetitions. With the disappearance of black bread, little white rolls celebrated their public resurrection. Favored guests are even able to obtain them now by employing the ever infallible war trick, "Speak softly and carry a big tip."
