

"Over the Top"

That call meant life or death to many of our brave boys over in France. It was the call for action in the greatest adventure the world has even known.

And even in peace times, there still comes the call of "Over the Top," a challenge to get out into action in the great affairs of life. A savings account at our bank will prove a great help to you when the latter call comes. You desire to succeed, to be in the front ranks, to win a name and a fortune. Our bank will help boost you along. Enlist with us and we will go over the top together.

How the "Wear-Ever"

ALUMINUM ROASTER helps you save money.

Every day in the year you can use the "Wear-Ever" Roaster—on top of stove over one burner, or in oven.

The "Wear-Ever" Roaster serves so many purposes that it saves the cost of other utensils—and it will outlast several ordinary roasters. It saves fuel because it absorbs heat so readily and retains it so long.

"Wear-Ever" utensils give enduring satisfaction. Cannot chip, scale or rust—are made in one piece, from thick, hard sheet aluminum.

Replace utensils that wear out with utensils that "Wear-Ever"

Miss Minnie Griffith, of Gold Beach, left here this morning for Copco, Cal.

Mrs. John Mock went to Salem this morning to join her husband, who is employed in the capitol city.

A. Hamilton, a mining man of Spokane, is at the Western hotel and will remain for some time.

Mrs. J. S. Parson, of Ashland, is spending the day with her sister, Mrs. Geo. S. Calhoun.

Mrs. L. A. Lucas arrived this morning from Portland and will visit old friends. She is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. DeGenault.

Arthur Ranzau, who came to Grants Pass with the remains of his mother for interment here, returned to Newburg last night.

Mrs. H. B. Moore, of Portland, who visited at Ashland, stopped off here this morning to visit Dr. F. H. Ingram and family.

W. H. Flanagan is in Portland attending a session of the Scottish Rite and will witness the Shrine ceremonial there tonight.

F. C. Stitzer, banker of Dorris, who is interested with J. T. Tufts in the lumber business, returned home today after spending a few days here.

H. H. Foster, of Chicago, who is heavily interested in Josephine county property, was in the city yesterday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Flint.

Mrs. Carl Gentner returned last night from Portland, where she spent several weeks. She also visited her mother and brothers at Corvallis. Her brothers, Clifton and Claud Booth are students at O. A. C. George Booth was a student until a week ago when he joined the marines and is now at Vallejo.

A. E. Koehler, soil expert for the government, who spent a couple of weeks at his home at Okanagon, Wash., returned yesterday to complete the office work connected with the Josephine county soil survey. Mrs. Koehler has been marketing the apples on their 20-acre orchard, and owing to the scarcity of help and danger from frosts the business men turned out and assisted in picking. There were 46 men at work at times.

Aids Roosevelt Memorial Fund—

The mail brings to the Courier office a check signed by Roscoe Howard, of the Dixie ranch, for $5, and payable to the Roosevelt Memorial association, to help make up Josephine's deficit in the quota to be raised here.

Oxford Dining Room to Open—

The Oxford dining room, which has been closed since May, will be opened tomorrow night with G. Hallett in charge. Mr. Hallett has had experience in many of the larger cities and comes well recommended.

STAGE CARPENTERS AT WORK FOR CEREMONIAL

Members of Hillah Shrine are making elaborate preparations for the ceremonial to be held in Grants Pass on Saturday. A truck load of paraphernalia was shipped from Ashland and several shipments have been made by express. Special scenes for use in the opera house during the initiation have also been sent.

The parade on the street immediately after the arrival of No. 53, at 2:43 Saturday afternoon will be for the public and will have many novel and interesting features. The ceremonies will be held in the opera house which is now being put in readiness by the special Shrine carpenter, C. H. Veght of Ashland, assisted by Joe Porter, a former Grants Pass resident.

The members of the local committee on decorations are all in Portland and up to the present time nothing has been done. It is hoped some of the committee men from Ashland will be here tomorrow to give pointers to the local business men as to decorations. Merchants will be asked to assist by making their stores attractive.
