

To the Young Man

Are your "Boy Scout" days about over? Have you about completed your studies? Are you about ready for the real great battles of life? Then listen to your banker for just a moment.

If you haven't an account at the bank, no matter how small, start one today. Don't put it off. Your financial success depends upon it. Make the start. Add to your deposit. The habit will grow. Some day you will thank your banker for this advice—providing you follow it. Of course our bank extends you an invitation to open an account.

MORE SHEEP

Great Britain has nineteen times as many sheep per acre as the United States. In Great Britain there is one sheep for every 2.3 acres of land. In the United States there is one for each 40 acres. Two factors are for the most part responsible for the condition: 1st, system of manure; 2nd, natural difficulties such as climate, soil, etc.—Josephine County Farm Bureau News.
