PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Miss Louise Roedel went to Portland today on a visit.

Willard storage battery service station, 314 North Sixth St. 17ft

Mrs. Margaret Moore went to Portland this morning for a few days stay.

Mrs. Florence Penning, of Los Angeles, is here for a few days with her sister, Mrs. Maud Breeding.

Clyde E. Niles went to Portland last night on a business trip. He will also visit Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacLean Hawkes, of the Red Riding Hood hotel at Wolf Creek, spent Wednesday in the city, returning home this morning.

Mrs. John Hyde, who spent the holidays here, returned to Portland today. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Wade, and niece, Miss Pauline Swacker, who will remain in Portland.

George A. Hunt, of Medford, owner of the Medford and Grants Pass moving picture theatres, is in the city today. Mr. Hunt decorated the Josephine register with "The Weather," recognizing the claim that Grants Pass has the "climate."

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Everton and daughter, Mrs. Marie Freid, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harvey, of Portland, stopped off here last night for a day, returning from the Harvey funeral at Rock Point.

John Ransau, former resident of Grants Pass, now of Newburg, spent a day here early in the week. He visited old friends. His principal business, however, was the buying of hop roots for the planting of 120 acres on his Newburg farm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bauman, of Pella, Ia., are visiting Mrs. Bauman's brother, H. A. Stonaker. Mr. Bauman is a realty dealer in his home section and he tells of land sales of farm property at from $300 to $750 per acre. The Iowa boom is putting all the western booms in the background.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rehkopf and son left this morning for Salem, expecting to remain. Mr. Rehkopf has been a resident of Josephine county for more than 40 years, having spent all but four years of his life on the Rehkopf farm on the Applegate. Friends predict his return to the Rogue river valley.
