THE SPECIAL SESSION
The special session of the state legislature is now on the job at Salem. Its first work was the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment, and this occurred within a few minutes of the calling to order of the session.

RELIEF FOR CHROME PRODUCERS

Like most great bodies, the federal government, and especially that part of the government represented by the congress of the United States, moves slowly. It has moved especially slowly in dealing with the chrome producers of the west, but it now seems that those who are diligent enough in the prosecution of their claims may at last get just treatment.

try was asked to bend every endeavor toward rendering the greatest possible assistance. The west was asked to hurry up the production of those materials which must come from here, especially to put energy into producing spruce and chrome, two materials that could not come from elsewhere.

of funds of the compensation commission for vocational rehabilitation of injured workmen also were included in the governor's recommendations.

Financial Aid for Soldiers
The attention of the solons was directed to action the governor declared necessary in connection with the carrying out of the provisions of the bill enacted by the people at a special election last June, extending financial aid to soldiers, sailors and marines who participated in the great war.

Governor Olcott devoted only a brief statement on the question of ratification of the national constitutional suffrage amendment.

"It will be my pleasure," he said in his message, "to have forwarded to your honorable body for ratification the resolution of the congress of the United States of America providing for an amendment to our federal constitution which will extend to the women of our nation the right of suffrage. This is a matter which I recommend to your early attention and I am certain that you will not deem it presumptuous if I express the hope that you give your unanimous approval to the ratification of this amendment."

The fish and game commission question, which has been the cause of much discussion throughout the state since the recent dismissal of State Biologist William L. Finley, was discussed at length by the governor, who declared that regardless of what the merits of the controversies over the fish and game affairs may be, the fact remains "that bickerings and wranglings have developed a hopeless situation which must be met by a new deal if we are to attain what we all desire—highest efficiency and the best results."

Governor Olcott told of the recent meeting of the fish and game committees of both houses of the legislature, and said he understood these committees would recommend, or propose, legislation which would provide for two distinctive commissions, to have control over the commercial and sportsmen's interests, respectively, but declared he still felt that a complete separation of the two interests would lead to more harmonious relations.

THE CHANCES

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR
Don't Depend on Spring Deliveries
Spring deliveries of Ford cars have never been certain, and they should not be depended upon. Demand has always been greater for Ford cars than the supply or production. So, if you would be sure of having a Ford car, buy it now while deliveries are possible. Don't wait—even next month, is an uncertainty.
Only a limited, specified number of cars have been allotted to this territory. That allotment cannot be increased, because the demand all over the country is greater than the supply or production. Get your order in now, and you will be one of those who is sure of a Ford car out of our allotment.
It's first come—first served. All orders are filled in rotation. So, if you would be forehanded, if you would be certain of having a Ford car when you want it—then you will buy a Ford car now. A signed order with us is your protection. It is the result of the wisdom of looking ahead.
If you buy a Ford car now, don't think you have to "store" it. The Ford is a car made to serve its owner for business or pleasure throughout the entire year. Ford owners have long since come to recognize the fact. It is no longer popular to "lay-up" your car for the winter. Buy a Ford car now and use it now.
