FAILURE OF THE STEEL STRIKE

A few days ago the telegraph brought the news that the leaders of the steel workers union had told the striking employes to return to work. For many months the steel industry was disturbed and its output curtailed, its influence thereby being felt in all industrial channels, because of a strike that was untimely and unwise.

There may have been righteousness behind the strike of the steel workers, but it came at a wrong time, and it alienated the sympathy of the people because it attempted through punishment of the public to force something from the employer.

"PRECEDENT" AND THE COURTS

Because courts tend too consistently toward "precedent," which is too often not common sense, the state of Oregon will have as its governor for the next three years a man whom they have repudiated for the office, and who will serve two years longer in public office than the people elected him to any office.

INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Twenty thousand persons last year paid a fine of $5 each for failure to file an income-tax return for 1918, although their income for that year was not taxable.

The revenue act provides an exemption of $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons and heads of families, and an additional exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon the taxpayer, if such person is under 18 years of age, or incapable of self-support.

a return, and others whose income was nontaxable because of dependents, and who were under a similar mistaken impression.

For example, a single man with a net income of $1,000 was supporting a sister for whom he was allowed an exemption of $200, placing his income in the nontaxable list. For this reason he did not file a return.

To avoid penalty, every person whose income for the last year equalled or exceeded $1,000, or $2,000, according to their marital status or their status as the head of a family, must file a return.

Whether or not a person is the "head of a family" and entitled to a $2,000 exemption is a question to be determined largely by circumstances surrounding each individual case.

A head of a family is defined by treasury regulations as "a person who actually supports and maintains one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependents is based upon some moral or legal obligation."

The $1,000 additional exemption allowed the head of a family can not be divided between two single members of a household. A division of responsibility excludes the parties from such claim.

BITS FROM THE STORY OF "Mary Regan" AS PLAYED BY Anita Stewart

IN LEROY SCOTT'S SENSATIONAL NOVEL OF BIG PLEASURE IN NEW YORK

"Yes, this is Mary Regan—Oh, it's you again, Loveman—No, you can't see me. I'll have nothing more to do with that sort of thing—What!—Now listen, Mr. Loveman, don't you threaten me, you know I know too much—good-bye."

"I want you Jack" and a Mary and her new husband turned to face the burly form of Bradley, all the old hate and cunning in her rose to combat this new menace to her plans.

Mary, at the other end of the line, had no idea that her young husband's millionaire father was framing her legal advisor, her old friend, against her.

"You don't know yourself as well as I know you Mary Regan." "Bob," she said, "I'm going through with this thing—I'm going to enter the Golden Doors—I will win and you can't stop me."
