New Barber Arrives—

Samuel Horrocks has arrived in the city from Duluth, Minn., and has taken a position at a third chair in the barber shop of Carl Williams in the Josephine hotel building. Mr. Horrocks' family will soon arrive from the east.

Business at Jacksonville—

C. W. Courney returned last night from Jacksonville, where he went to see about getting the work on the new road up Kanes creek under way. This road is to connect the lime quarry with the railroad, and the lime for the paper mill at Salem will be hauled out over it.
