REMARKABLE RACE BY HORSE

Castor, Morgan Gelding, Finishes Long Endurance Contest With Clean Speed Record.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In a 300-mile endurance contest with horses of the purest Arabian breeding, "Castor," a Morgan gelding bred by the United States department of agriculture at its Middlebury, Vt., Morgan horse farm, was the only horse with a clean speed record at the end of the fourth day of the grueling contest. "Castor" won third place for speed at the end of the contest, notwithstanding the fact that he fell in the deep sand on a bad bit of road, injured his nose, and made the last five miles in a walk. This achievement is an indication of what has been accomplished by the department of agriculture in the rehabilitation of the Morgan breed during the few years since the work was undertaken.

The race was from Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., to Camp Devens, Mass., largely over unimproved roads. The purpose was to stimulate interest in the breeding of cavalry mounts throughout the United States. A majority of the horses entered were Arabians. One was a crossbreed that had seen overseas service and was the first horse to pass successfully through quarantine at Newport News. Two were Morgans, bred at the department's farm. The veteran of overseas service, "Bob," owned and ridden by Colonel George, led the field at the beginning of the race, but was taken out before the finish. The two Arab-

COST OF HORSE BLEMISHES

Defects Cannot Always Be Prevented, but One Bad Spot Will Prove Expensive.

A horse market report from one of the Western selling points says: "When present, blemishes take off up to $50 or even more from the price of first-rate animals of the same type." Blemishes can't always be prevented, but it is good business to try to prevent them, for, as can readily be seen, one bad spot in the makeup of a horse may mean the difference between profit and loss on him. Outside of precautions to prevent injury the only safeguard against blemishes is to breed only sound mares to sound stallions. Sometimes a colt will be curly or otherwise defective, in spite of all that can be done to avoid such weaknesses, but that is no argument against trying to produce only the good ones.

ADDITIONAL FEED FOR PIGS

Scalded Middlings, With Milk Added, Placed in Shallow Trough Is Fine for Porkers.

When the pigs are about three weeks old they will want to eat more than the milk they can get from their mother. A small shallow trough should be placed where the sow cannot get to it. Scald some middlings, stir and pour in some milk. Put into the feed about a tablespoonful of molasses. Drive the little pigs carefully over to the trough. They will get the odor from the molasses, put their noses to the feed, lap it and begin to eat.

PROPER QUARTERS FOR PIGS

Animals Should Be Kept in Dry Pens and Fed in Clean Troughs—Prevent Chilling.

Pigs should always be kept in dry, clean quarters and fed in clean troughs. They should not be allowed to run out in cold rain or allowed to become chilled in any way. Sows running through filth and then being suckled will often cause pigs to scour.

FINDS COOK KNIGHT OF LEGION OF HONOR

French General Gets Surprise When He Objects to Overdone Roast.

Strange and puzzling complications have arisen in the relations of the people of France as a result of the world war.

Sometimes persons wearing proud decorations are found engaged in rather humble occupations, and the fact that they have been honored by their country would probably never become known if on some occasions attention was not called to it.

"You are wrong to speak so severely, my general. I am a knight of the Legion of Honor."

The general was Gen. Gassoulin, who controlled the Paris railroad systems when they were taken over by the army, and the knight was his new cook, who had overdone the roast.

The general could not believe his ears. He made an investigation and found the new cook had lost her husband early in the war. She became a nurse at the front, where she showed such bravery that the red ribbon decoration was awarded her.

When the war was over she accepted dismissal from the army medical service without complaint, and, having to earn her living, became a cook, wearing her decorations only on Sundays.

"When the general learned the truth he embraced the cook," says the Echo de Paris, which vouches for the story, "and since has not allowed himself to make remarks when any dish has failed to be a perfect success."

A Prominent Druggist Testifies

Redondo Beach, Calif.—"I wish to call attention to my experience in the sale of Dr. Pierce's Anurie Tablets. I have never sold an article that has given such universal satisfaction. It seems that every bottle sold sells another. I am very much inclined, like most druggists of today, to sell the 'long shot' stuff at a greater profit, or something 'just as good,' but in suggesting Anurie for uric acid and rheumatism I consider I have not only created business along that line but have gained the confidence of the public which more than repays me for my interest and suggestion, together with the satisfaction I get from having an article that I can place with perfect confidence. Nothing would please me more than to be able to introduce Anurie to the world for the benefit of all mankind. However, I have to content myself by simply calling attention to the satisfactory results that follow as reported to me by the individuals, extending their thanks."—C. D. KNOX.

Many of Your Neighbors Can Say the Same

Tuolumne, Calif.—"My back gave me considerable trouble, which I thought was due to kidney disease. After taking four packages of Dr. Pierce's Anurie (anti-uric-acid) Tablets I was fully recovered. I consider it a wonderful medicine. I also use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets whenever I am bilious, and they give immediate relief."—WM. H. BOSCH.
