PERSONAL AND LOCAL

A. Bauer went to Leland this morning to visit his grandson, Allen Underwood.

L. E. King and Mr. Dunn, of the Siskiyou highway division, were in the city yesterday and today.

We deliver twice daily—Moore Baking Co.

Mrs. John Hildreth and Mrs. Sam Sandry, of Rogue River, were in the city today.

Willard storage battery service station, 314 North Sixth St.

Donald A. Pottorff, who visited his father, S. A. Pottorff, left this morning, returning to Portland.

Hemstitching neatly done. Mrs. Nellie Neas.

Mrs. Mable Priddy, of Medford, came over from Crescent City yesterday and went to Medford this afternoon on the delayed train.

Remember our lunches—Moore Bakery.

Mrs. Mary Hildreth left last night for Willamina, Ore., going in response to a telegram received stating that her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Claude Hildreth was severely ill.

Fresh milk and cream at Horning's Shack.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Overlin, of Portland, are at the Oxford. They drove their car up from California to Grants Pass without difficulty but here debating whether to attempt to finish their trip by car or by rail. The Wolf Creek hill is reported impassable.

Royal Neighbors Meeting—

After so long a time of quiet, it might be thought there is no Royal Neighbor Camp, however, this is a mistake. At their last meeting a full corps of officers was installed. They have changed their place of meeting and will hold their regular meeting Saturday afternoon, Feb. 7, in the Security Benefit Association hall on G street. Bring a friend for a social hour.

Elks to Attend Funeral—

All Elks are requested to make a special effort to meet at Hotel Josephine at 2:30 Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral service of Bro. W. C. Hale.

Another Large Egg—

The Portland papers a few days ago printed a news item telling of a large Willamette valley egg. Mrs. T. P. Judson comes forward with the product of one of her Rhode Island Red hens which equals the Willamette egg. The circumference of the Rogue valley egg was 6½ inches by 8 inches.

The Basket Grocery—

Will open for business in the Albert Bldg., across the street from the postoffice, Saturday morning.

You Can't Dodge—

We have smashed prices. A Chevrolet ride at Ford price. For it's the climate. Palace Taxi, phone 22-J. 11

Two More Flu Cases—

Two further cases of the influenza are reported in the city, one being that of Henry Hiller, at his home on East G street. The other is that of one of the Loomis brothers, who reside on North Second street. Loomis is the man who is supposed to have first brought the disease here from the north, he having been employed following his arrival at the rock crusher. He had not recognized the disease, and was not quarantined till he was found by the authorities and his trouble diagnosed as the flu. The cases are all mild, and those ill are doing well.

Notice—

Beginning Saturday, Feb. 7, we will be in our new location, the Albert building, across street from the postoffice. The Basket Grocery Co.

We Are Going—Are You?—

Where to? Wilderville schoolhouse. What for? Home talent play. When? Saturday night, Feb. 7th. What time? 7:45. Admission 15c and 25c. Proceeds for the church. 88

Complaint Against Wood Seller—

Charging the sale of short measure wood, a complaint has been entered against "John Doe" Keltner, a wood hauler, the complainant being Charles Collins. Collins swears that he arranged with Keltner for the delivery of 24 tiers of wood, of fir and manzanita, the cost of the fir to be $3.50 per tier and of manzanita to be $4.50 per tier, of a total value of $111. He states that only two tiers of wood of a value of only $7.50 was delivered, but that he paid the full price of $111. The case will be heard before Judge Holman.

Ride in a Sedan—

The Owl Taxi has just purchased a sedan car and you can ride with the high brows at low brow prices. 92

THE INSTRUMENT OF QUALITY SONORA CLEAR AS A BELL

BEAUTIFUL TO EYE AND EAR

Not only is the Sonora delightful to listen to—the rich, true, velvety-smooth, expressive tone being wonderfully lovely—but the distinctive, graceful appearance of this phonograph is unique and remarkable.

The Sonora is produced for those who want the very best. There is a keen pride of possession in owning this superb instrument.
