Ashland Entertains—

About 25 Knights Templar and their families of Grants Pass attended the special Easter services at Ashland yesterday afternoon. At 12:30 the visitors were served luncheon at the Masonic Temple, following which the lines were formed preparatory to marching to the Methodist Episcopal church where Rev. William Wallace Youngson, grand prelate of Oregon Knights Templar, occupied the pulpit. Rev. Youngson's topic was "Modern Chivalry," which held the audience's close attention during his wonderful historical sketch of the rise of the Order of the Temple. There were nearly 150 sir knights in attendance at the service.
