The Strike of the Switchmen

To The Public:

Strikers who have not returned to work are being replaced by new men. This work will be swiftly and vigorously followed until normal service is restored.

The strike was without notice to the railroads. It is not authorized by any railroad brotherhood. It violates working agreements, violates the rules of the Brotherhoods to which the men belong, and violates the law of the United States (Section 301, Transportation Act of 1920.)

It is in defiance of the orders of the railroad Brotherhood's Executives, and has neither the sympathy nor support of the overwhelming majority of railroad employees.

New men will be given seniority rights in order of employment. Wages are 64 cents an hour for eight hours work a day and 96 cents an hour for overtime. Good board and lodging are arranged for at the job. Protection assured.

Apply to superintendent, Room 32, second floor, Union Station, Portland.
