IRISH RENTERS WANT FARMS SUB-DIVIDED

Dublin, May 6.—Conflicts over land attended by organized "cattle drives" to intimidate land owners and compel them to sell have been added lately to Ireland's other troubles. The disturbances are a revival of conditions which prevailed 30 or more years ago when farmers and graziers were forced by similar methods to sell large land holdings. The malcontents complain that most of the good land in the south and west of Ireland is being used for grazing purposes and that they are unable to purchase it. Consequently they have resorted to the "cattle drives" and threats of bodily harm to the owners. It is very difficult to police all the country and many of the drives have resulted in three or four farmers losing all their cattle at one swoop.

The intimidators are represented as renters who are demanding longer leases of land, small owners and a certain number of holders of comparatively large tracts who believe their neighbors' land used for grazing is more suitable for tillage than the ground they are trying to cultivate.
