Denver Ministers Praise "EVERYWOMAN"

THE REV. S. A. STRIPLING
"Every woman should see 'Everywoman.'"
THE REV. I. S. WILSON
"In my opinion the play 'Everywoman' has a splendid moral for all peoples."
THE REV. CLARENCE J. TINKER
All Saints Church
"If the modern woman wants a picture of herself she can find a mirror in 'Everywoman.'"
THE REV. W. A. WEBSTER
With Side Christian Church
"Your picture, 'Everywoman,' carries a great lesson for true womanhood, which should help save many girls."
THE REV. O. D. ROSS
Pastor Fifth Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church
"A picture worth while, with a lesson for every woman. More photoplays of this character are needed in these days."
THE REV. ROBERT B. H. BELL
St. Thomas' Church
"Every woman should see 'Everywoman' where the author has honestly and cleverly presented the problem of every woman."
THE REV. A. G. HARRISON
St. Luke's Rectory
"The lesson is a good one. Whether every woman will be willing to be taught is a question, but at least the effect is commendable."
THE REV. O. G. WICHMAN
St. Paul's Evangelical Church
"For the world of amusement seekers, the play has certainly a great lesson and may serve to awaken some. I think the play helpful for a certain class of people."

Announcement—

Having almost completed the engineering work for the pumping system of the Grants Pass Irrigation District, I have resigned my position as project engineer. I am now prepared to fulfill promises for private engineering work. Tom R. Pearce.

Editor Courier—

Kindly state through the columns of the Courier that the committee which has in charge the arrangements for the meeting of Mrs. Jennie Kemp, is not responsible for the news item appearing which stated that Mrs. Kemp was coming under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. and the Josephine County Legislative Club.

MRS. JEANNIE BURKE.
MRS. A. C. HOUGH.
MRS. GEO. RIDDLE.

What's the use of wasting a lot of good cooking on meats that are not as good as they should be when for the same money you can buy steaks and chops and roasts and poultry at this purity-guaranteed market. What's the use, anyway? Watch for Mr. Happy Party

At the Union Market—
Fine cuts of beef, pork, veal and mutton, poultry and fish. Special sale of choice breakfast bacon. 403 G street, phone 6. 72

Baseball Game Saturday—
There will be a baseball game at the high school campus Saturday afternoon at 3. The Grants Pass and Klamath Falls teams will contest, and as the game at Klamath Falls a few days ago was hard fought and the game Saturday is expected to be ended with a slight victory for them, an exciting one. 72

Mrs. Jennie Ke up to Speak—
Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp will talk at the courthouse on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the interest of Herbert Hoover as a candidate for the republican nomination for president. Her subject will be "Why I Came Home to Vote for Hoover." The public is cordially invited to hear this talk by Mrs. Kemp who is a very interesting and gifted speaker. 72

Any Able Bodied Man—
Or woman who misses the candidates' ball at Murphy, Saturday night, is certainly incapacitated for the enjoyment of life's goodie goodies. Spend $1.50 and view the whole human race at once. 72

Well "Armed"?

When company comes there is no time to waste—no chances to be taken—so mother sees that there is always a can of on hand. Cakes, pies, doughnuts, muffins and all good things to eat must be dressed up in their best taste and looks.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Then, too, her reputation as a cook must be upheld—and she "stakes" it on Calumet everytime. She knows it will not disappoint her.

Order a can and have the "company" kind of bakings every day.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

You save when you buy it. You save when you use it.
