WELCOME THE VISITORS

The city of Grants Pass is under a peculiar obligation to show its hospitality whenever such a body as the auto caravan, to arrive Wednesday, enters its gates. Hotels are built and maintained to accommodate a normal trade, and the city has excellent hotels that can meet the ordinary requirements. But with the coming of the caravan the need for sleeping quarters for a single night becomes greatly augmented and the people of the city are called upon to supply the need. The visitors come ready to pay their way, and only that the way be found to feed them and lodge them during their stop here. Hospitality is one of the chief assets of the community, and the requirements of the caravan should be met from that point of view and not from the monetary point. The guests will be the best type of Northwestern citizenship, and every home that can possibly accommodate some of the number should be opened freely to them. Make them glad they came.
You will make some good acquaintances among the number and you will be doing your community a service.
