ADVERTISING OREGON

Advertising was prescribed as the means of providing Oregon with more people to man its farms, expand its industries, and to bring tourists here to see the state's scenic wonders, by Julius L. Meier, in a talk before the Portland campaign executive committee of the Oregon state chamber of commerce.

Mr. Meier told of what might be expected to result from the activities of the state organization, enlarged and strengthened to meet its opportunities as a state-wide development agency.

"Oregon's advantages and resources can be told to the world by advertising," said Mr. Meier after declaring that the state chamber had a vast amount of work ahead of it to accomplish those things for Oregon which only a state-wide agency can do.

"We have had many campaigns for money in the past, but this one is different," he said, after it had been pointed out what Portland and Oregon had done for America and Europe, but that "this is a movement for Oregon."

"By honest advertising the state chamber feels that it can double the agricultural acreage of Oregon in three years," said Mr. Meier. "If it can do this it will add $200,000,000 annually to the crop revenue of this state if we use last year's figures as a basis of computation."

BERMUDA PLANING FOR BIG CELEBRATION

Hamilton, Bermuda, June 11.—Bermuda, the oldest remaining British "plantation," is preparing to celebrate its Tercentenary this autumn, for which purpose 2,000 pounds have been appropriated. Since the Prince of Wales announced the other day that he meant to pay a call on his loyal subjects, they hit on the scheme of combining two festive occasions and having one grand affair on October 7 when the Renown, with the heir to the throne aboard, is to cast anchor here.

It was August 1, 1620, that the Colonial parliament held its first sitting, but as the royal engagements cannot very well be altered, it was thought wise to set back the gala date.

For nearly 300 years the business of governing this little outpost of the Empire has gone on under the same forms without material change. It is but natural that the 20,000 inhabitants of this 20 square miles of coral rock should wish to honor their aged constitution.

Originally founded by a shipwrecked company under Sir George Somers, destined for Virginia in 1609, the islands have remained continuously under British rule.

Revenues are raised chiefly from tariff duties. No land taxes are levied by the colony. There is a very light tax on realty in the parishes and the proceeds are used for maintenance of the poor.

ROBERT WARWICK STARS IN "TOLD IN THE HILLS"

The magnificent panorama of rugged mountains and deep canyons that forms the background for "Told in the Hills," Robert Warwick's latest picture, which opens at the Oregon tonight is in keeping with the powerful story that is revealed.

To those who have read Marah Ellis Ryan's famous novel, it is a rare treat to see their old favorites in action on the screen. Others who meet big-hearted "Genesee Jack" Stuart for the first time through Robert Warwick's superb interpretation of the character will be no less enthusiastic. The exciting story of love and adventure that centers around "Genesee" was excellently interpreted by a fine cast, which includes such noted players as Ann Little, Wanda Hawley, Eileen Percy, Tom Forman, Monte Blue, Guy Oliver, Charles Ogle, Margaret Loomis and Hart Hoxie.

"Told in the Hills" is like a breath from another age—the hard-fighting, great-hearted West of 1880. Its wonderful story, great cast, and lavish scale on which it was produced lift it far above the ordinary Western photoplay. It is a remarkably well presented all-American picture that every red-blooded American will enjoy.

furnish a man when the nation was in dire distress, Congressman William A. Rodenberg, of Illinois today placed the name of Illinois' war governor in nomination for the presidency of the United States.

"Three score years ago," Congressman Rodenberg said, "at a time when the passions of men were stirred to their depths the nation turned for leadership to Illinois. We gave them Lincoln and grandly, nobly, he met the test. Illinois in 1920 stands ready to consecrate to the service of the republicans another of her great sons. We present the patriotic governor of a patriotic state, Frank O. Lowden."
