

Needs Are Studied

A conservative bank is not necessarily behind the times.

This Bank is thoroughly modern, yet it is a conservative institution. The officers study your needs and the needs of the community and are always ready to assist in meeting them.

The depositor's interests are carefully safeguarded.

"Ting's" Lunch Wagon Sold—

Luther Tingley has sold his lunch wagon, which has become a familiar sight on Sixth street, and leaves tonight for Portland where he will spend a few weeks. "Ting" says he expects to drift back here before very long. William Teal has bought the lunch wagon and will continue it, adding tamales to the menu.

COMING EVENTS

June 30, July 1, 2, 3, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday—Teachers' examinations, Grants Pass.

Will Give Dance—

The Grants Pass band is making preparations for a big street dance next Saturday night and from all indications it will be a big time. The dance will be given on H street between Sixth and Seventh and will be put in excellent condition for dancing. Lights are to be strung across the street and the pavement prepared for the dancers. A concert will precede the dancing. This will start shortly after 8 o'clock at the railroad park. Dancing will begin at about 9 o'clock. Coffee and doughnuts will be served on the street. The money from the dance will go toward financing the band. Ten cents a dance will be charged.
