

The Business of Farming

Up-to-date farming is a business. A farm cannot be run in a "slipshod" manner with any degree of success.

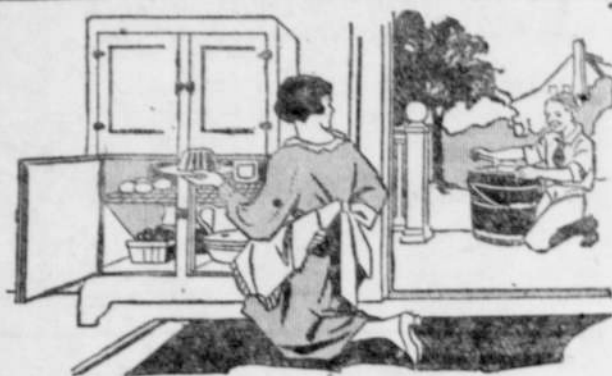

When business methods are applied, it is possible to secure the greatest success.

Advertiser Visits Here—

O. H. Miller of the community advertising service department of the Sunset Magazine was in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Miller says that practically every community on the coast is planning or carrying on extensive campaigns for homesekers, industries and other developments through the medium of paid advertising and advertising literature. Medford, Ashland, Albany and other cities are developing advertising plans on a more or less large scale.
