Use A Flashlight About the House

KEEP a WINCHESTER Flashlight in the kitchen to flash into the pantry shelves, the oven or the ice-box. Have it ready to light the way to the cellar, or down the back-door steps.

Always have a WINCHESTER Flashlight in the bedroom. Use it in the clothes closet—keep it beside the bed at night.

Come in and see these Flashlights which we recommend so highly.

Boys Chorus Tonight—

The Whitney Boys chorus concert at Riverside park tonight will be a treat to all who are fortunate enough to be present. The lads have had excellent training and the 40 or more who will be here were selected from the 1000 in the chorus because of some marked ability along musical lines. A collection will be taken to help defray traveling expenses.

Married Last Saturday—

Edward Barnard and Willa Ressa Wadsworth were married last Saturday evening by Judge Holman at the home of Mrs. J. M. Mansfield on T. street.

Costura Club Meets—

The Costura Club held its regular weekly meeting Friday afternoon, being entertained by Mrs. H. Johnson. A very pleasant surprise awaited the club members for after they had assembled at Mrs. Johnson's home they were taken in automobiles to Riverside park where a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Luncheon was served, the color effect being red and white. A very enjoyable afternoon was the result and bathing in the river was part of the program.

The Picture Mill—

Will be closed for a few days to permit Mrs. Bancroft, the artist, to attend The Eastman School for Professional Photographers, which convenes in Seattle, Wash., the latter part of the month. Upon her return Mrs. Bancroft will be equipped with all of the very latest up-to-the-minute information for producing the very finest work in her art. For the date of the reopening of The Picture Mill, watch the Courier. 27

Was at Convention—

Fay Kiser arrived last night from Berkeley and is visiting here with his grandfather, V. Wallace, and with friends. Mr. Kiser graduated from the local high school and is now with the Federal Reserve bank at San Francisco. He got inside of the auditorium at San Francisco on three days during the democratic convention and heard the delegates during some of their interesting arguments. He gained admittance through R. R. Turner, who was a delegate to the convention. Mr. Kiser leaves tonight for Corvallis for a visit for a few days and will return here for a week's visit later.

PRISCILLA DEAN STARS IN VIRGIN OF STAMBOUL

It is not often that a calloused reviewer is driven to the use of superlatives in commenting on a photodrama, but after viewing "The Virgin of Stamboul," which was shown here for the first time yesterday matinee at the Oregon theater, it is found necessary to sound its praises in no uncertain terms.

Priscilla Dean, who first flashed on the film horizon with "The Wildcat of Paris" and established a distinct personality on the screen, which was followed by a half dozen other important productions, but who has been missing from the silver sheet for a long while, re-appears as the star of this picturesque story of the East and proves clear title to being classed as one of the foremost players in the silent drama. In the role of the little beggar on the streets of Stamboul, untamed and unafraid, knowing nothing of right or wrong, but with natural instincts that preserve her undefiled amid the filth and squalor of her surroundings, Miss Dean gives a characterization that must be classed as a masterpiece.

Wm. Bunch went to Medford this morning to spend the day attending to business matters.
