Maxwell Is Sold—

John Maloney, of Wolf Creek, is the latest purchaser of a new Maxwell automobile from the Collins Auto company.

Lots of Jazz and Pop—

At the dance Saturday night. 31

A Profitable Vacation—

Miss Edith Spalding and Miss Zenana Banta have solved the H. C. of L. problem for one summer. Miss Spalding drives the sawdust cart and Miss Banta a four-horse team to the lumber car. They attended school here during the winter and are spending the summer in Swede Basin taking the places of men and doing it well. Robert Bestul, a 1920 graduate of the local high school, is also working at the mill.

Nedison's Orchestra—

Will give a dance at the Waldorf hall Saturday night. 31

Buy's Illinois Valley Tract—

M. B. Reed, who recently sold his place, Cloverleaf farm, on the Altouse near Holland, believes the Illinois valley is the best place in the world to live. Although he has owned several places in that section and sold them he cannot leave the district. Mr. Reed has just purchased the Schly 40-acre tract, lying about four miles south of Kerby, and this fall will commence improvements on the place.

The Best of Music—

And the best of fun at the dance Saturday night. 31

cooperate with us strongly in the policy of going after volume on a close margin of profit basis. In the new Autumn line of woollens they are quoting many numbers at little more than the bare cost to cut, make and trim, and even the finest woollens are priced this season at much less than a fair margin of profit.
