SLUGGER JACKSON SAYS TY COBB'S WONDERFUL SPEED BEATS HIM OUT

Ty Cobb is faster than Joe Jackson, but the White Sox slugger can hit better. The Georgian gets many a safe hit from laying them down and outspeeding the ball to first, while Jackson has to resort to longer drives. Joe says:

"I always did want to lead the league in hitting, but I'd rather see our club win than gain any special honors myself. In ten years I have never been under 300 and once I went over 400, and Cobb has always been a little out of my reach. He can run faster than I, which accounts for a lot of things, and he ought to get credit for it, because that is a part of the game. I'd like to beat him out, though, and who knows but that this may be my year."

IT PAYS TO BE SURE

It pays to keep up and make sure. In the twelfth inning of a recent Pittsburgh-New York game Burns was on third and Fletcher on first and two out. A double steal was put on and Schmidt chased Burns back to the bag and "thought" he tagged him. Umpire Bill Klem said nothing. The Pirates started to leave the field. Burns dashed for home. Carter still had the ball. Cuthaw had reached the home plate. Carter threw to him and Burns was tagged for sure this time, as Klem solemnly bawled "Out." It was a narrow escape.

NOTES of the DIAMOND

Pitcher Artie Nehf of the Giants is showing a big improvement over his early season work and promises to get back into his old winning stride.

The Cleveland and the New York Americans are both great hitting teams, but for the old tear the cover off slugging the Yankees seem to have it on the Indians.

The veteran, John McCloskey, is coming into his own this season. His Memphis team is tearing along at top speed out in front in the Southern league.

After the Syracuse International league team had lost 14 games in a row, the York Stuffers came back and defeated Baltimore twice in succession.

Jack Daubert may not be the most widely advertised player on the Cincinnati team, but there are none more valuable than he.

FLING AT CUP TO COST IN EXCESS OF MILLION

Sir Thomas Lipton.

A careful checking up of expenses by a person close to the Lipton interests shows that this fourth attempt to lift the America's Cup will cost the Shamrock's owner a sum well in excess of $1,000,000.

This will be Sir Thomas' last fling at the cup. If he wins it he will consider his bill of $1,000,000 cheap. If he loses—well, he is considered the best sportsman who ever tried to take the cup away from here.

In any event, win or lose, this will be his last venture in international yacht racing.

Concerning Aerial Flights.

Air Commodore Edward Maitland of R-34 fame, speaking at the Royal Society of Arts, said that while flying the Atlantic he realized about 9 a. m., and he was ashamed to say he slept until nine the next day. He found that the air not only induced sleep, but sharpened the appetite. Ladies had often asked him, the commodore said, "In what should we dress when about to take an aerial flight?" He felt tempted to suggest crinolines, which would become very useful as parachutes should the necessity arise. —London Chronicle.

Hebe, Goddess of Youth.

Hebe, in Greek mythology, was the goddess of youth and spring. She was the personification of eternal and exuberant youth, and until supplanted in this office by Ganymede, was cupbearer of Olympus. She was a daughter of Zeus and Hera, who gave her as wife to Hebe after his defilement, as a reward for his achievements.
