Tourist Trade on Increase—

Tourist trade is increasing every day, and is hitting a higher mark than at any other time in the season. All hotels are filled to capacity nearly all the time, and report that indications point to a heavy fall tourist traffic on account of the gasoline shortage during the summer.

Riverview Farm Manager Here—

T. W. Barber, manager of Twohy's Riverview farm, located near Hell Gate 16 miles down Rogue river, is in the city today attending to business interests here. He is accompanied by Mrs. Barber and son, Kent, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kent, who have spent the past couple of days at Medford. Mr. Barber says he will be picking pears in full blast next week.

W. R. C. Regular Meeting—

The regular meeting of Gen. Logan W. R. C. will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the W. O. W. hall. There will be several new applications to be acted upon and a full attendance is desired as this corps has been invited to go to Gold Hill, Friday, August 20, to exemplify the ritual work for a new corps just organized there. It is necessary to know how many can go.

George Kroh Will Visit—

George Kroh, son of R. E. Kroh of the Tokay Heights Company, has wired that he will arrive here Sunday for a short visit with his father and friends of this city. He is now connected with a sugar corporation on Wall street, and will be called severely to account by his local friends for the high price of that commodity. As he is now on a "business trip" to Pasadena via Lake Louise and the Canadian northwest, the contemplated drop in sugar will probably be countermanded. George attended high school here with the class of 1912.
