Examination Taken—

The state board of engineering examiners held an examination Friday of southern Oregon applicants, beginning at 9:30 a. m., at the high school building for the practice of professional engineering. The board members present were O. Laugaard, president, city engineer of Portland, F. D. Webber of Portland, vice president, and electrical engineer, W. B. Dennis of Carlton, Ore., chairman of the state bureau of mines, and Dean G. A. Corvill of Corvallis, chairman of the O. A. C. rating bureau. Those taking the civil engineering examination were E. C. Coopen of Klamath Falls, Stuart McKissick, of Eagle Point, and G. M. Ashford of Grants Pass.—Medford Tribune.
